A. W. HARRIS, Sc. D., L. L. D., President

The location of Northwestern University near a large city, and the equipment supplied by an endowment of $8,000,000 unite to afford students advantages that cannot be excelled. The College of Liberal Arts, the Academy, and the Schools of Music, Theology, and Oratory are at Evanston. The schools of Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmacy, and Law are in Chicago. Combined College and Professional courses can be completed in six years.

Evanston, twelve miles from Chicago, affords an environment of culture, study, and college traditions. The city of Chicago furnishes the professional schools with unlimited court, hospital, and clinical facilities, and with the services of highly trained Specialists.

For information write to the Registrar, University Hall, Evanston.

Nervous Disorders

A deficiency of Phosphates in the system causes a lowering of the nerve tone, indicated by exhaustion, restlessness, headache or insomnia.

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE

(Non-alcoholic)

furnishes the necessary phosphates in a pure and abundant form. It supplies the nerve cells with health-giving life force, repairs waste, restores the strength, and induces healthful sleep without the use of dangerous drugs.

An Ideal Tonic in Nervous Diseases

If your druggist can't supply you, send 25c. to RUMFORD CHEMICAL WORKS, Providence, R. I. for sample bottle, postage paid.

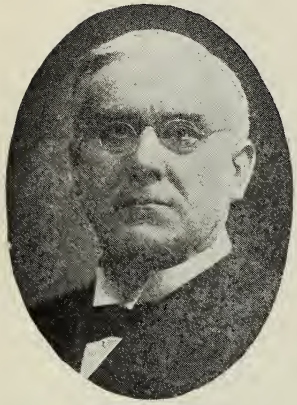
REPORTS OF PRESIDING ELDERS.

FORT WAYNE DISTRICT.

C. U. Wade, Presiding Elder.



Bishop McDowell and Brethren—The year has been one of faithful work and earnest effort on the part of our pastors and people, and good reports will be made from all our charges. Death entered the homes of three of our pastors during the year. Mary Hill, the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Hill, was called to the Heavenly home in October. She was beautiful in Christian life and character, and loved by all the people. Dr. Hill is one of the pastors of Bluffton. Mrs. Anna E. Nethercut, the wife of Rev. M. E. Nethercut, "fell asleep" at the midnight hour of March the seventh. For three years she had bravely struggled for life, until at last she said, "I am so weary, so weary. I long for the rest and home in Heaven."

"Asleep in Jesus! Blessed sleep;
From which none ever wake to weep."

On last Friday morning the Death Angel visited the home of another of our dear brethren, and Mrs. Bertha L. Pittinger, the beloved wife of Rev. M. C. Pittinger of Coesse, was called away. She committed her baby, ten days old, and the members of the home circle she loved so well, to the care of the Heavenly Father, and then triumphantly swept through the gates to Heaven.

CHANGES IN THE PASTORATE.

Rev. J. O. Stutsman was assigned by the Bishop to Monroe. He began the year well; but soon there was an opening as assistant pastor in one of the large charges in Baltimore, where he could do the work required, and yet have time to prosecute studies in John Hopkins University. He was released from Monroe by the Bishop, and given the place in Baltimore. Rev. E. L. Jones, one of our supernumerary preachers, was placed in charge at Monroe, and has pleased the people so well that they desire his return for the coming year.

Rev. M. B. Morgan, a local preacher, supplying the Oak Grove Charge, at a $450 salary, without parsonage, was released to accept a charge in the North-West Indiana Conference, at an $800 salary and parsonage, and with the promise of a student appointment, while he shall complete a classical course in DePauw University. We were pleased to help this worthy brother in this way, so that he might the better equip himself for the work of the ministry. Rev. James S. Newcombe, the orator of his class in Taylor University, where he has won high honors and will graduate this spring, was secured to fill out the year. He has wrought well, and pleased all the parishoners.

Rev. George H. Simons, of Spencerville, was transferred last month to the Puget Sound Conference, and stationed at Port Angelus, a station and town of over three thousand population. We trust that he may have many added years in which to serve the Lord and our Methodism.

Rev. M. E. Nethercut, of Wayne Street Church, Fort Wayne, was transferred to the Kansas Conference, and stationed at Lawrence, an appointment of about the same grade as Wayne Street; and the pastor at Lawrence, who had done magnificent work there for four years, was transferred to Wayne Street. While at Lawrence he secured funds to pay off a good sized debt and to repair the church and parsonage. He had placed a $4,200 pipe organ in the church; had more than five hundred conversions. The full membership of the cuurch was increased from 667 to 1,047. We heartily welcome this soldier tried and true, to the ranks of worthy men in our Conference, and pray that he may have like success in his new charge.

Joy has come to the parsonage homes at Ashley, York, Leo, Coesse, Bluffton and Bluffton Circuit, by the advent to each of a beautiful child, during the year. The parents are happy, and so are all the people; as evidenced by their thoughtfulness and many gifts of love to the inmates of these parsonage homes.

BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS.

At Air Line, on the Poneto Charge, the church building has been enlarged and rebuilt at an outlay of $2,800. $1,400 was expended at Geneva; $847 on the Harlan Circuit; $750 at Lake Chappel on the Poneto charge; $500 on the Bluffton Circuit; and fourteen other churches have been improved and repaired at a cost of $100 to $500 each; and several at a less expense. Our parsonage property has been well cared for, and in many charges made more comfortable and desirable for habitation.

Our wide awake pastor on the Geneva Circuit, saw opportunity to organize a new class in an abandoned church within four miles of one of his appointments. He held revival services there for three weeks, organized a good class of twenty-five members. He not only has a Methodist class at this place, but he secured funds and purchased the church building and site, and has had it transferred to us by good, warranty deed.

The new Hymnals have been placed in more than half of our congregations. Several pianos have been purchased for use in the Leagues and Sunday Schools; $2,300 has been subscribed for a pipe organ at Angola, and the organ is to be placed in the church at once. The hopeful and persistent effort of the pastor was necessary to reach this result. $11,700 has been paid on old indebtedness.

AUXILIARIES.

Very effective work is being done in the ninety-two Sunday Schools in the district. We have a gain of four schools over last year. There are enrolled 12,303 scholars; a gain of 949. Hundreds of these scholars were led to Christ and united with the church during the revivals of the fall and winter. We believe that here is one of the most hopeful fields for Christian effort. We use our own literature, and believe it to be the very best published anywhere.

We have 47 Senior and 27 Junior Epworth Leagues. In June a successful District Convention was held at Auburn. The Leagues of the district are pledged to the support of Rev. D. O. Ernsberger, the Presiding Elder of Raicher District in India, and will pay $1,000 toward that support this year.

The 52 Ladies' Aid Societies have rendered splendid service for the church on many lines. They have looked after the strangers, and cared for the sick and the poor. They have added to the effectiveness of the church by their efforts on lines of Christian sociability. They have raised large sums of money to improve church and parsonage property. About one-third of our pastors would be here with their salaries not fully paid, if it had not been for the contributions of these societies to help meet the pastor's claim. And these elect women have done their work in wise, approved, business like and legitimate lines. We have welcomed their efforts and rejoiced in their success.

We have 15 Womens' Foreign, and 10 Woman's Home Missionary Societies, with 18 Young People's Auxiliaries. These societies have raised $3,127 during the year for the work at home and abroad. These societies are a great help and inspiration in the local churches. By the study of Misionary Literature; by their monthly meetings; evening rallies, and district conventions, they have imparted information that our people would not have obtained in any other way. The larger contributions to the Parent Society are in a good measure the result of these efforts in laying the cause of Missions on the hearts of the men of the church.

At Angola a bequest of $1,000 to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has been made by one of our departed brethren, available on the death of his widow. A bequest of $400 for the Parent Society was secured by the pastor from a non-member, who died recently. It will be turned into the treasury soon.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

We held our District Conference in Trinity Church, Ft. Wayne,

March 19th, 20th and 21st. We had an enrollment of 170 delegates and visitors. Sickness kept one pastor away. All others were present. The regular disciplinary business was carefully attended to; strong addresses were made by three of the Presiding Elders, Revs. E. L. Semans, H. N. Herrick and T. M. Guild; C. O. Merica, and brethren of the district. The reports from the laymen were excellent. They showed that the clergy had not been permitted to do all the sacrificing and hard work. I have not words to give full credit to the loyalty, devotion and earnest efforts of these laymen, who have counted no sacrifice too great to help make possible the good reports which the pastors made to the District Conference.

PASTORS' SALARIES AND BENEVOLENCES.

This year, as last, will show a fair increase in the salaries of several of our pastors; and our good people see to it that the claim for ministerial support is met in full.

Missionary Conventions were held in every charge in the district last fall, and for two weeks we carefully studied the wants and imperative needs of all our great Benevolent Societies. Our people have not grumbled or complained when called upon to help maintain and support these interests. We feel sure that when our pastors get these causes upon their hearts, and then lay them upon the hearts and consciences of our people, that money will flow into the treasury of the church for these great interests as readily and naturally as the rivers flow to the seas. A pastor who complains about the amount of money asked for Missions, Church Extension, Education and Conference Claimants, will have a grumbling, complaining people; and when he dallies, waits, hesitates, dreads, and when the year is nearly gone unwillingly calls upon the church to contribute for these purposes usually fails, and cannot well help but fail.

When we complain that too much is asked and expected of our churches for these interests, as compared to our local needs, we hinder our people, narrow their outlook, lessen their liberality, and even close their pocket books to the appeals for the needs of the local church, and of course fail to get our apportionments for benevolences, or go beyond the apportionments.

By the faithful and earnest presentation of these causes by the pastors of our district, our people know and understand that the apportionment made to the charges is only the minimum to be secured. Our pastors strive for the largest sums that can be secured for these causes They know that giving doth not impoverish us, and that withholding doth not enrich us, and so they gladly appeal to the church, and the church willingly and cheerfully responds; and God blesses their efforts. Unless the advance reports are misleading, a good gain will be had in all our benevolent offerings. For Conference Claimants we will give $150 more than last year. Missions will be $950 in advance of last year. Our contributions to the Parent Society will be over $8,900. A gain of 97 per cent. over three years ago.

REVIVALS AND MEMBERSHIP.

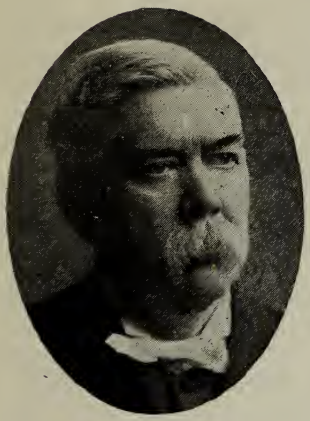
A very general revival interest has prevailed during all the year. Over eleven hundred persons have been converted and added to the church. 108 on Bluffton Circuit; 97 at Geneva; 84 Ossian; 81 Poneto; 77 Harlan; 74 Pennville; 49 Leo; 45 St. Paul; 38 Hoagland; 36 Orland; 31 Spencerville; 20 to 30 in nine charges; and 10 to 20 in ten charges. Our pastors were their own evangelists in nearly every meeting, and the revival has been steady and normal this year, as last. This will be seen in the fact that we will have a gain in full members, after all losses by death, removals and otherwise of over 600. The converts of last year had under the preaching of our own pastors, and efforts of our own people, were held and cared for, and received into full membership; and this accounts for the large net gain in members.

Brethren, I said last year, that we expected to go right on doing the Lord's work, increasing in membership; in attendance in Sunday Schools and Leagues; advancing in our contributions for benevolences, until we should stand at the head of all the districts in the Conference and of the State. One or two more years of growth will give us the pennant. Brethren, bestir yourselves. We shall make the effort not simply or primarily to stand at the head, but for higher and better motive; to please Him who hath called us to this holy work.

All too briefly, I have noted some of the features of the splendid work that my pastors have wrought in the district this year. If I were to mention the charges and pastors by name who deserve commendation I would simply call the roll of the entire district. I have not time to tell of the special acts of devotion and effort of these royal pastors, nor of their devoted parishoners. I am sure that these tried, true, consecrated and heroic men would rather that I should not mention their names, coupled with their successes and triumphs. God knows, and He records all these signal victories in the Book of His remembrance. I have treasured them in my heart and memory and I trust the All Father to more than compensate them for all their loyalty and devotion to Him and His holy work.

GOSHEN DISTRICT.

Henry W. Bennett, Presiding Elder.



Bishop and Brethren—On the 25th of March the pastors forwarded to me their Annual Reports for this conference year. From these I make my report. I shall omit, for the most part, statistics, as the accurate statistics will be found in the published minutes.

It is my conviction that Goshen District is continuously pushing forward to better things and higher ideals.

The spiritual condition is believed to be several degrees better than last year at this time.

All the pastors as printed in the appointments published in the minutes were well received by their charges.

The work of the year opened auspiciously. The following changes have occurred: F. M. Kemper, after a few weeks of very successful labor at Mishawaka was unable to carry on his work. Physical infirmities from which he has not wholly recovered made it necessary to relieve him. The church treated him with a Christian generosity highly commendable and always possible where men love the Lord in deeds as in words. He will request his present relation and the appointment of assistant pastor at Warsaw. That Church wishes that this may be done. His place was supplied by C. Claude Travis, a transfer from the North-West Indiana Conference. Arthur Cates was appointed to Topeka; but on account of his wife's health, he requested to be appointed to a charge in Wyoming, which was done. His brother, S. L. Cates, was then appointed to Topeka.

J. Wesley Oborn has demonstrated the wisdom of his appointment as Conference Evangelist. He reports preaching 270 times; holding many other services; giving Bible readings and expositions; and seeing many children soundly converted.

I call special attention to the case of A. L. Weaver, who has been the pastor on the Inwood Circuit for three years. Under his pastorate the circuit has made great progress. A new church has been built at Inwood costing $4,000. The Bethel Church has been reconstructed and enlarged at a cost of $2,300. Richland improved for about $200. The parsonage improved by $100, a total of $6,600 in three years, with an indebtedness unprovided for of less than $1,000. The spiritual condition has been improved. Probably over 100 souls have been converted. September 23, 1906, his only son, Charles, aged six years, full of faith, died as a Christian dies. And there fell upon the father and mother sorrow so deep that when added to the strain of his great labors have so effected his health that he feels he must take a rest for one year at least. The sympathy and the prayers of this Conference will follow him, and his wife, and we hope that he may find in this rest a full restoration to health.

F. M. Stone reports that he has had a successful year as the Endowment Secretary of the Woman's College of Baltimore, to which position he has been re-elected. He desires re-appointment to that work.

The case of J. Bigham was referred to me to proceed under the Discipline. After careful study, and some consultation with the Bishops, I decided that I had no jurisdiction in the matter.

I have employed E. R. Wood as a supply for Clunette; C. L. Marsh as a supply for Butler Circuit; J. E. Groff as a supply for Mishawaka circuit; and F. G. Freed as a supply for California Church. These brethren are local preachers and have done good work.

Mention is made of the efficient work of C. O. Merica, L. L. D. in the re-opening of the churches at Bethel, Fribley and Saint Mark of Goshen; of the services of W. D. Parr, D. D. at Mishawaka; and Madison Swadener in the re-opening of the church at Atwood.

Five charges report no Epworth Leagues. There are 46 Senior and 26 Junior Chapters in the district. Several report the League as an indifferent factor in our spiritual work. I mention this fact for in some cases it may be possible for the reader of this report to be stirred up to good works thereby. For the most part our leagues are doing a good work. They are helpers in missions and revivals, and in the winning of the young people to our church.

The Leagues held a District Conference in June at Elkhart. It was well attended, and an inspiring program brought forth good results. They undertook the support of Quincy A. Myers, a missionary and a presiding elder in China. They take 480 Epworth Heralds.

Our District Conference was held at Warsaw and about 100 delegates were present. The interest awakened was shown by the large crowds in attendance. J. W. Oborn was secretary. We have been highly favored with Conferences.

The Branch meeting of the W. F. M. Society was held at Elkhart, and Trinity Church took care of the 800 delegates and visitors, with distinguished success. The meeting was an inspiration to all the churches. There are sixteen W. F. M. and 16 W. H. M. Societies in this district and they are doing a good work for the Church and for the cause of Missions. Each organization has had a district meeting with inspiring results.

There are 75 Sunday Schools in our Churches. Generally some attention is paid to Missions; but it is a matter of some concern that so few conversions are reported and so few of the children attend the public worship. Our Church literature has been creditably endorsed by all but three of them. It is to be hoped that time will bring sufficient enlightment to see the superior excellence of our own literature. Our people do read religious papers; but not all of them see our Advocates. They liberally support a large number of newspapers not owned, edited, or published by our Concern. Many of them are far below the stndard set by our Advocates in quality and quantity of reading matter. While we regret that our own papers do not compel their admiration and support we will be glad that our people love good reading and good books. It might help the circulation of our papers if our people knew that all the profit derived from their publication aided in the support of the venerable Ministers who are now superanuated. However, we have a subscription list numbering 225 for the Western Christian Advocate, and of 79 for all other Advocates.

There are 64 Ladies' Aid Societies on the district. Their work is a help to all the undertakings of the Church. They raise money for Church improvements, care of the parsonage and pastor's support. Their methods are in accord with the Disclipline and not detrimental to the spirituality of the Church. They have raised about $9,000 for all purposes.

The current expenses of our Churches, including all departments, with a few exceptions, have been faithfully met. The pastor's support in many cases have been increased, and has been paid with increasing promptitude. The district has fixed on December 15th for "settlement day" upon which day an effort is made to pay the pastor in full for nine months. This plan has met with favor and the majority of the Churches paid on that day either for nine months; or up to date. This made a pleasant outlook for the Holidays for their pastors. Over nine thousand dollars has been paid on old debts, and the present indebtedness amounts to about $13,000. This includes all the improvements even those where subscriptions have been made to secure them. Bristol and Butler report their Churches free from debt for the first time in years.

There has been a general movement for improving Churches and parsonages and beautifying the same, and over $25,000 have been expended therefor.

While it is desirable to mention each Church and the amount spent and what is was for, I shall be compelled to omit all where the improvements did not exceed $200. Bourbon $260; Butler $535. On the Etna Green Charge, the Church at Atwood was improved and re-opened at a cost of about $2,000, and Fribley Chapel at an expense of $500; Goshen First Church, $1,500; on Inwood charge, Bethel and Richland Churches $2,500; Kandallville $2,500; Ligonier $460; Lima charge, Ontario Church $900; LaGrange $460; Middlebury $216; Mishawaka $4,000; Nappanee $605; North Webster, two churches repaired $385; Wolcottville, $213. Leesburg, P. E. Greenwalt, pastor, the old parsonage was sold and a new one built with every modern convenience provided for. It is all paid for and is valued at $2,000. A destructive fire destroyed the school house and the temporary use of the Churches was secured for shcool purposes. This interferred with revival efforts. At Goshen, W. C. Butts was the pastor of the Fifth Avenue Church. He led the Church to change its location, which has been accomplished. A new site, finely located, an enlarged church, and a parsonage on the same lot are the results. About $6,000 has been expended. On Easter Sabbath large audiences attended the services. C. O. Merica preached and raised about $2,300 to meet the unprovided claims. There is now a better Church than we ever had on the north side; a new parsonage; and a property valued at $9,000, with an unprovided debt of less than $1,000. The name of this church has been changed to Saint Mark. Osceola, under the inspiring leadership of A. A. Turner, the pastor, sold their old parsonage and built a fine, new one, with all modern conveniences. It is valued at $2,000.

There has been a good deal of active and aggressive work this year in the interests of temperance. Everywhere our pastors have been in sympathy with it. All the saloons have been driven out of Albion. The Blind Tiger law was inspired by our people at LaGrange. Nappanee is free from saloons. In many of the towns no saloons has been there for years. The fight is still on and will be until we have cleaned up the district.

BENEVOLENCES.

Our Churches and our pastors are called upon to aid in raising money for every good thing. Our calls embrace every moral reform. Our members give liberally for some of these. Every authorized benevolence has been presented. Attempts have been made to reach the full apportionment for all. I wish to emphasize the fact of the faithfulness of the pastors. One day missionary conventions were held in each charge. At these meetings addresses were made upon the whole range of our benevolences. Mr. and Mrs. Ward, of India, excited wide attenition and did good work.

I can make a good report of the Christian character and influence of our superannuates. In general their lives bear a good witness to the power of our religion in the sunset period of life. After the record of leadership through many years to retire and pray for their successors and cheer on the young men who have taken their places and to keep sweet and happy are accomplishments only possible to the gifts and graces of the religion of Jesus Christ. It is from glory on to glory until all is swallowed up in Eternal Glory.

The spiritual condition of the membership is generally good. There have been revivals in nearly every Church. There have been some small gains in all the charges. The pastors have done their part. In some Churches they have had the assistance of evangelists, both men and women. The reports dated the 25th of March, show 1,451 conversions and reclamations. There have been received on probation 703; total accessions, 1,479.

The reports of the pastors reveal the fact that they are busy men, great readers, hard students and good "mixers." They have not negelcted visiting from house to house. The total visits reported is 27,000.

An average of 750 for each pastor. They have officiated at 365 funerals and 262 weddings. Besides baptisms many, and sermons not a few, and special revival service in each of the 75 churches, they have been hard students. The Pastors on the Circuit travel many miles. Knowing what they read, the periodicals they take, the visits made, miles traveled, sermons preached, revivals held, help given to each other, funerals, weddings, baptisms and other labors it is hard to find occasion to accuse any of them of neglecting his work, or of idleness, or of not keeping abreast of the times.

PERSONAL.

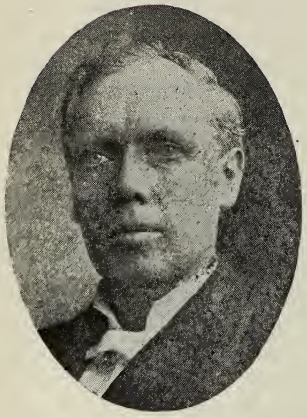
I have traveled the district the whole of the Conference year, having been in each charge four times and in some several more. I have spent one whole Sabbath on each charge and in cases of need have added to the number. I have not kept many figures for the purpose of reporting them here. I have held 146 Quarterly Conferences and several business meetings with officials. I have preached, lectured or talked 150 times. I have attended Sunday School, prayer meetings, conventions and Conferences not a few. I have given all my time to the work of superintending the district. I have made both ends meet financially, by economy and care. I have not lost a day by sickness, and I am now in a reasonable degree of health.

If the complimentary resolutions passed by Quarterly Conferences and the District Conference, and the praise of the officials in the various charges are reliable—and I love to think that they are—I have given satisfaction to many and feel that my work has been reasonably successful.

With grateful thanks to the pastors for their kindness to me, with love for all the Churches, with gratitude to God for my preservation and health, and ability to meet my engagements, I submit the report of and district work.

LOGANSPORT DISTRICT.

H. N. Herrick, Presiding Elder.



Dear Fathers and Brethren—The mortality list in the Logansport District for the year now closing is in striking contrast with the preceding year. Of the nineteen memoirs in our last Conference Minutes seven of them were identified with this district. This year only one death has occurred among us, that of Dr. W. O. Pierce of Atlanta, who passed away the last week in August, 1906, after being a constant sufferer and an invalid in body for some years.

CHANGES DURING THE YEAR.

J. W. Tillman, who was appointed last Spring to the Cicero Charge by Bishop Warren, and had begun what gave promise of being a very delightful pastorate, was obliged about the first of September to give up his work on account of failing eyesight. There seemed but one thing to do, viz., to save if possible the little sight remaining. He will ask for a superannuated relation at this session and should have the prayers and sympathies of his brethren in the Conference.

At the request of the official boards of Cicero and Arcadia these two small stations were joined together as one charge, the change taking effect at the close of the first half of the Conference year, and A. D. Alexander, of North Street, Kokomo, was appointed as their pastor. P. J. Albright, who had been supplying the Arcadia charge was appointed to North Street for the remainder of the Conference year.

During the first week in March last, Bishop McDowell transferred J. C. Dorwin, of the Wheatland Avenue Church, Logansport, to the Puget Sound Conference, and at the same time appointed L. C. Poor of Galveston to the Wheatland Avenue Church.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

There are eighty-five Methodist Episcopal Churches within the bounds of this district, every congregation or society being provided with a house of worship. Three new churches have been built. Two of these new churches are on the Walton Charge, William M. Amos, pastor. The first dedication was at Walton, July 1, 1906. Dr. Swadener, of Grace Church, Kokomo, preached the sermon and the Presiding Elder had charge of the dedicatory services. The second church is at Lincoln, on the Walton Charge, and was dedicated on the 23d day of last December by the Presiding Elder. Both are built of cement blocks, though not in the same way, and both present a neat and attractive appearance. The church in Walton cost in round numbers $5,500 and the one at Lincoln $6,500, and both are practically paid for. Such houses of worship as these two congregations now possess would have been considered absolutely impossible before the present pastor was appointed to the charge. There was one very commendable feature about the dedication of these churches that should not be overlooked. In neither case was there any public appeal for money. To dedicate a church under such circumstances is certainly no unpleasant task.

What was perhaps the most improbable, if not impossible task along the line of church building, was undertaken by the church at Frankton, J. Z. Barrett, pastor. Had they contemplated at the first building what they finally did, it is quite certain they would never have undertaken it Their first plan was to remodel their old building, but one change suggested another until they really had a new church enterprise on hand. The church is built on the general plan of auditorium and prayer meeting room, so arranged as to be thrown together when necessary. The building is a frame, with a brick veneer, and is a great credit to our congregation there and the community in general. The building cost about $5,000.00, and was dedicated on Easter Sunday by Dr. Parr, who preached and managed the finances in his own masterful way.

During the year three churches in the district have undergone quite extensive repairs. The first was at Ijamsville on the Roann Charge, Chas. H. Smith, pastor, where nearly $300 were spent in doing work that was very much needed. The second was New Zion. on the Mexico charge, F. A. LeMaster, pastor, where about the same amount was spent on repairs needed for some time. The third was at Disco on the Akron Charge, T. M. Hill, pastor. This building was remodeled to such an extent as to make it practically a new church. Rev. B. S. Hollopeter of Broadway, preached the sermon, managed the finances and re-dedicated the church on the 24th of last February. About $1,000 were expended in remodeling the church and now our people at Disco have a very comfortable and convenient house of worship.

During the year some changes have occurred in the parsonage situation in the district. At Mexico the parsonage, which was a very large building and considerably out to one side, was disposed of and a very convenient and well located property purchased in the central part of the town and within a short distance of the church. An embarassing indebtedness of over four hundred dollars has been practically wiped out by the persistent effort of the pastor. At Amboy, Robert Burns, pastor, a parsonage property costing about seven hundred dollars within reasonable distance of the church has been purchased and will make a real pleasant home for the pastor. When it is remembered that it is only four years this spring since the class at Amboy was organized and that we now have good church and parsonage properties, and that this class now wants service three-fourths of the time and is able to pay for it, we can see in some measure how prosperous the work there has been

A new parsonage at Galveston, L. C. Poor, pastor, was made possible by the gift from a friend of one thousand dollars to the church for that purpose, subject to annuity. The building cost about fifteen hundred dollars, is real attractive in appearance and makes a very convenient home for the pastor's family. Taken together with the beautiful church on an adjoining lot these two buildings constitute one of the most desirable stations of its class in the district. If the re-adjustments are made that now seem probable, there will be only two charges in this district that will not be supplied with parsonages. Preliminary steps have been taken to build a new pasonage at Macy to take the place of their old one, and already considerable over half the amount has been subscribed on a building to cost about one thousand dollars. A new church enterprise has been launched at Markland Avenue, Kokomo, and the pastor and congregation have as their goal a structure that will cost from twenty to twenty-five thousand dollars. Already five thousand dollars have been pledged and the work only begun.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

The scarcity of ministerial supply is too close to be comfortable. Our two sister Conferences in this State are face to face with the problem, to say nothing about the situation in other States. Our turn may be next. There are probably other causes than meager financial support that tend to check the supply of ministers, but evidently this has something to do with it.

In the Logansport district our churches are doing fairly well, but nothing extra. The largest estimated cash salary for any of the pastors is eighteen hundred dollars, and the smallest is four hundred dollars and out of this small amount the pastor must pay house rent. The average for the district as estimated by the committee is $796.00, not counting the rental value of the parsonages. The aggregate estimates for the district show an increase of over one thousand dollars more than last year. While this is not what it ought to be, yet it indicates a steady, healthful growth along this line.

THE BENEVOLENCES.

During the month of September a series of Missionary Conventions was held throughout the district, giving practically every charge an all-day convention. The district will continue its allegiance to Dr Pyke's work in the North China Conference. Last year thirty-one of the thirty-eight charges in the district were in first-class for Missions, according to the estimate of the Missionary Society's Committee on Equitable Apportionments, and it seems quite probable as large a number will reach that place this year. From the reports furnished the Presiding Elder, the other benevolences will be about the same as last year, with fair probability of an increase.

If no mistake has been made the showing for the charges named will be as follows: Those paying their entire apportionment for all benevolent causes are Alto, Sheridan and Twelve Mile. The following have increased their Missionary contribution over last year: Akron; Alto; Cicero; Converse; Forest; Hillisburg; Grace Church, Kokomo; Broadway, Logansport; Macy; Mexico; Roann; Russiaville; Santa Fe; Sheridan; Tipton; Twelve Mile; Walton.

The Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies in the district have both had a good year. The Woman's Foreign will report an increase of about 66 per cent. over last year's receipts, not counting the bequest that is to their credit this year. The Woman's Home Missionary Society will show a gain of 50 per cent. over last year, not counting the bequest that is to their credit.

In this connection it is proper that public mention should be made of the bequests of Sister Frances G. Wright, one of our Conference widows, who at the time of her decease was a member of this church where we are now assembled. These bequests consisted of $2,000 to hte Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, $1,500 to the Woman's Home Missionary Society, $1,000 to the Missionary Society (Parent Board) and $800 to the erection of this house of worship, besides a subscription of $500.00 from her and her heirs.

During the year Rev. J. H. Jackson, one of our honored superannuated ministers, residing within the bounds of this district, gave to the Preachers' Aid Society of our Conference $350 to purchase a home in Alexandria, to be used by some one of our superannuated preachers.

REVIVAL MEETINGS AND PASTORAL WORK.

A majority of the charges in the district have enjoyed good revival meetings during the year. Not many of the sweeping kind in cities and larger towns and yet Elwood, E. E. Neal, pastor, reports 237 converted and reclaimed during his special meetings. Several smaller places and rural districts have had most excellent revivals. Logansport had an unusual religious awakening during the last month in a union meeting under the leadership of Evangelist Scoville, and the Methodist Churches in the city have received their proportionate share of the results. Fully 175 people have come into our own churches as the direct and indirect results of these meetings. Markland Avenue, Kokomo, had a very gracious revival, in which the pastor reports there were 112 converted. Brother Shoemaker was ably assisted by F. A. Hall, pastor of the Alto Charge, and he in turn by the Markland Avenue pastor. As a result both charges had gracious revivals. With but one or two exceptions, every pastor in the district has had special revival services in his own church or charge. Those who hove not spent two weeks or more in union meetings. The time spent by the pastors in meetings of this kind ranges from two to eighteen weeks each, an average of about eight weeks for every pastor in the district. It does not seem quite right in every instance to give by name the charges that have had not less than a certain number of conversions during the year, for very often just as faithful, conscientious work has been done on the charges not reported. However, outside the churches already named the following report ten or more converted or reclaimed during special meetings: Akron, 58; Alto, 75; Amboy, 50; Atlanta, 15; Center, 93; Converse, 14; Denver, 35; Forest, 17; Frankton, 35; Greentown, 71; Hillisburg, 29; Kempton, 94; North St., Kokomo, 30; Broadway, Logansport, 80; Market St., Logansport, 60; Wheatland Ave., Logansport, —; Macy, 30; Mexico, 59; New Waverly, 30; Peru, 26; Roann, 35; Russiaville, 57; Twelve Mile, 32; Walton, 50; Windfall, 11. Thirty-two charges out of the thirty seven, report an aggregate of 1,501, which is about fifty per cent. in advance of last year. The year has been one of very blessed fellowship between the Presiding Elder and the Pastors of the district. The cordiality with which he has been received in the homes of ministers and laymen, and the services and sacrifices that have been so cheerfully rendered for his comfort have been appreciated to the extent of his ability, and are hereby acknowledged with unstinted gratitude. But above all has been the consciousness of the wonderful care of our kind Heavenly Father, the sweet and ever present companionship of the dear, blessed Savior, and the joy and communion of the abiding Holy Spirit, who has proved Himself to be a Comforter indeed.

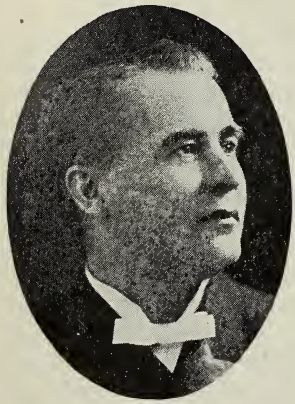
MUNCIE DISTRICT.

Leslie J. Naftzger, Presiding Elder.



Bishop McDowell and Members of the Conference—This is now the third time I am coming to you. God has so blessed in the work, and my head and heart and hands have been so constantly employed that the time has gone very rapidly. In these three years some things have been accomplished, for which I feel devoutly thankful, but my heart is filled with sadness, when I think of the much that ought to have been done that we have not accomplished.

Most of our 37 pastors were in their pulpits the first Sabbath after Conference. Only two changes have occurred in our working force. The first of October an exchange was made between the Rev. E. B. Randle, of the High Street Church in Muncie, and the Rev. Clark Crawford of Maple Avenue Church, St. Louis. Dr. Crawford came to us a total stranger, but in these few months has become one of us, and proven himself a master workman. On the first of February, Gilbert E. Martin left the McCordsville Charge to accept work in the Greencastle District, North-West Indiana Conference and Hubert Webster, a local preacher, was secured to finish out the year.

We find that nothing so continually attracts and holds the people as the old Gospel faithfully and lovingly preached. We have given special attention this year to the reclaiming of backsliders and the leading of the indifferent to faithfulness and effort. God has greatly blessed us in this work, and some of our Churches are almost made over in spiritual life. The class and prayer meetings have grown until in some instances, the rooms that once were too large, are now too small to accommodate the many who seek this means of Grace. We have striven to preach the whole gospel of Christ; the necessity of the new birth for the sinner, and the blessedness and necessity of entire sanctification for the believer. We have steadily insisted upon it, that those who professed conversion, should not only consent to accept Christ, but that they should be "born from above," and God has set his seal upon the ministry by some very clear manifestations of his spirit. We do not believe excitement is true religion, or simple emotion and evidence of a regenerated life, but we do believe that when old things are passed away, and all things have become new and the sinner has become a "new creation," that it is nothing against the genuineness of this work of grace, nor evidence of a lack of culture upon his part, if he feels some ecstacy of joy and gives expression to it in a shout of praise. In fact we have had a good deal of the old kind religion, and brethren, it's good enough for us.

Some of our Churches have reported more people converted, than they had members when the meeting began, and the spirit of revival has been quite general. We will not report quite so many conversions as last year, but I believe better work has been done and that the results will be more lasting.

On Monday, November 5th, the ministers of the District met in Muncie for a day of fasting and prayer. God signally blessed our waiting upon him and gave us an assurance of victory that has never wavered. We have found our District Ministers' Meeting a great means of grace.

The increased cost of living has made it difficult, especially in some of our weaker stations to meet all expenses and do large things for our benevolences. On account of local conditions in two of our stations that gave a total of $2,921 for Missions last year, making it impossible for one of them to do it this year, and doubtful about the other, we may have a small falling off in our Missionary offering. For instance several charges report as follows: Apportionment $162, raised $400; apportioned $156, raised $600; apportioned $578, raised $700; apportioned $790, raised $1,400; apportioned $229, raised $853. These figures will give you some idea of the perseverence, loyalty and spirit of most of our pastors. A few have not yet reached the place where they put forth their best, most intelligent effort.

We are devoutly thankful that not a death has occurred in any of our parsonage homes this year. Only one of those on the retired list, or widows of our brethren has passed beyond. On Monday morning,

May 7th, as we were assembled in our Ministers' Meeting at Muncie, we were startled by the intelligence that our dear brother, David D. Powell, a member of the First Church Quarterly Conference at Anderson, had just dropped dead in his barn yard. Bro. Powell was a good man, much beloved in the community in which he resided. We have no doubt and no questionings but that he was ready when the Master came.

In September we held our Missionary Conventions, and all unite in saying that they were the best we have ever held. The program was full of interest, and the brethren full of enthusiasm, and we believe, as a whole, they were better attended by the people than ever before. We have solved the problem of day attendance somewhat, by having a basket dinner at the Church, or some near by grove.

We have also held a series of sub-district Epworth League Conventions. Fixing them at such places as would not be able to entertain the District Convention, and also having in mind the covering of the entire district in our grouping. Each convention has the benefit of some members of the District Cabinet as well as the pastors and League workers in that particular district. For the most part we have used one general program at them all, allowing a question drawer and such peculiarly local matters at each place as would make them most profitable. This is the second year of this plan, and while we have met with some discouragements, on the whole we are satisfied that they have done much good, especially in giving our smaller chapters better methods of work. We have held some of these conventions in churches, where the charter hanging upon the wall was the only evidence that a chapter ever existed there, and have succeeded in resuscitating some of them. We had an excellent and well attended District Convention at Summitville in June. The weather was much against us, but the convention was full of power and enthusiasm. We are especially indebted to Dr. W. D. Parr for a sermon that stirred all our hearts and resulted in the conversion of several and the deeper spiritual life of many. I believe it would be impossible to find a more intelligent, more consecrated and more faithful band of Christian workers, than those who compose our District Cabinet. We have 41 Senior Chapters with a membership of 2,195 and 31 Junior Chapters with a membership of 1,760. We also have one Intermediate Chapter.

BUILDING.

We have not done much in the way of building this year. Most of our churches are in good repair, and are adequate to the demands of the congregations. We now have 82 churches worth $550,700. An average of nearly $7,000 for each church. We had at the beginning of the year 33 parsonages worth $56,350. A number of our churches have been repaired and beautified at an entire cost of $9,500. The following have made somewhat extensive repairs: First Church, Anderson, has put the building in complete repair and so beautified the interior with stucco work and fresco that it is one of the most beautiful auditoriums in the Conference. An excellent steam heating plant has also been placed in the parsonage. At Noble Street, Anderson, a steam heating plant for both the church and parsonage has been installed at a cost of $1,500, making this one of the best heated churches and parsonages in the district.

At Avondale, Muncie, the church and parsonage has been painted both inside and outside, and a basement excavated, adding a good room to the church, and an excellent hot air furnace has been placed, also the entire church re-carpeted. At Fortville, a new furnace has been placed and the church re-carpeted throughout. On the Albany Circuit somewhat extensive repairs have been made on several of the churches. In fact 19 out of the 37 charges report repairs to the extent of $100 or over.

Immediately after Conference Westfield Charge sold their old parsonage, which was moved away, and they began the erection of a new house of seven or eight rooms, with hall and front and rear porches, thus giving to our church a good property, and the pastor a comfortable home at a cost of $1,500. Also at the beginning of the year a new parsonage was begun at Normal City, Muncie. This house has seven rooms, besides bath and toilet rooms, front and rear porches and is heated with a good hot air furnace and inclosed with a good iron and wire fence at a cost of about $3,000. This parsonage is a monument to the tireless energy and tact of the pastor, C. J. Everson. Brother Everson has increased the unincumbered property of this church about $5,000 in the three years he has been pastor. He will close up the year with the pasonage entirely free from debt. It was dedicated by the Presiding Elder on Sabbath afternoon, October 7, 1906.

BENEVOLENCES.

Notwithstanding that the loss of gas has greatly affected our property, and that there was a special gift reported through High Street, Muncie, of $500 last year, that we will not have this year, the reports already made to me indicate that we will not fall below the totals for last year. Indeed, the sum total will be in excess of last year. (See Conference Treasurer's report.) I find that 17 of the 37 charges have paid General Conference Expenses in full. We believe the consolidation of the Benevolences to be a good thing, and that we shall be able to work up greater interest under the new arrangement.

REVIVALS.

God has greatly blessed us in our revival work and the manifestation of the Spirit has been quite general. The greater part of our victories have been since the first of February, owing to the rainy weather of January. Meetings that are entitled to special mention have been held at the following places: At Fishers, where there were 280 conversions and a number received the experience of entire sanctification. When it is known that we had only about 100 members here to begin with the work seems more marvelous.

At Hartford City, 250 were converted and 180 united with the church. Among the converted was one man over 80 years of age. On the Joliettville Charge a meeting of unusual power was held at Big Springs. Over 80 were converted, thus more than doubling the membership of this class. Revivals more than ordinary have also been held at Red Key, where about 100 were converted. At Joyce Chapel on the Gilman Charge, where the membership is almost doubled; on Albany Circuit, Albany Station; First Church and Noble Street, Anderson; at Salem on Desoto Charge; Beach Grove, Gaston Charge; Lapel, where 96 were converted; High Street, Madison Street and Normal City, Muncie; Daleville; Ninth Street, Noblesville, in which 103 were converted, making a total of 2,107 conversions. There have been received on probation during the year, 990. Received into full connection, 815. We now have 11,155 full members. Six hundred and forty-five adults have been baptised and 206 children. We take 417 Western Christian Advocates, a loss of 121. We also take 618 Epworth Heralds and a number of other Advocates. The change in price of both papers has undoubtedly cut down our list.

PASTORAL VISITS.

Our pastors for the most part have been faithful in visiting. The total number of visits reported to me is 26,874, an average of 726 to each pastor in the district. I have made a discovery which I deeply regret, it is, that 26 out of the 37 charges in the district have to report not a student in any of our institutions of learning. This leads me to say that I am more and more impressed that in our Sunday Schools and in the Junior Leagues, not half enough attention is paid to the religious training of our children, both as to doctrines and church loyalty, for many are in schools not our own.

The men in a number of our charges have been organized into societies of some sort. I feel that we shall see excellent results in increased effectiveness and intensified spiritual life from these organizations. I sincerely hope, however, that some arrangement can be made by which we may have a united Methodist brotherhood.

God has gladdened the following parsonage homes by the arrival of precious little ones: G. E. Martin, J. C. Graham and J. W. Richey, each a girl; and to C. J. Everson, a boy.

The following brethren, through the assistance of the Presiding Elder, have greatly added to their efficiency by taking unto themselves a companion: I. W. Singer and R. H. Smith. Brothers J. E. Ervin and E. F. Hasty, of the superannuated ranks have also demonstrated the truth of the Scripture, "Whoso findeth a wife, findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favor with the Lord."

In a meeting of the Stewards of the district called by the District Stewards, an organization was effected from which I am sure we shall see good results. They requested the Presiding Elder to secure the appointment of a District Evangelist for the ensuing year, pledging themselves and their charges to raise an amount necessary to meet such expenses as may be necessary.

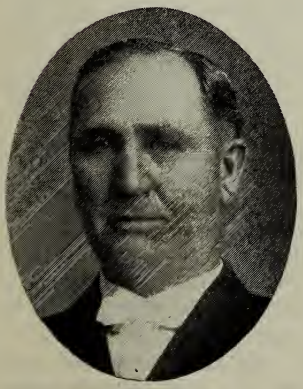
I cannot close this report without calling attention to the non-effective brethren of the district. Some of them are really very effective men. Particularly is this true of R. S. Reed, who has been virtually District Evangelist for this year and he has done excellent work. J. E. Ervin, who has preached almost every Sabbath, and has acceptably assisted the Presiding Elder a number of times. Also Lewis Reeves, who not only preaches frequently, but as the Deputy Clerk of Bradford County, assists many needy couples out of the intricate mazes of single blessedness into the still more blessed paths of matrimonial bliss.

There are a number of others, whose physical strength will not permit of so much activity, but are just as willing and who are sweet in spirit and helpful in counsel, simply waiting until the Lord shall say: "It is enough, come up higher." We have a number of elect widows, who are most helpful and inspiring in their lives and service.

The year for me has been one of unusual labor and anxiety, but I have never had a more precious consciousness of the Master's presence, nor more enjoyed preaching the Gospel, and I have never had more evidence that my service was accepted of the Lord. The pastors and their families have been exceedingly kind and thoughtful for my comfort and convenience, and have made the accomplishments of the year possible. To Him who hath loved us and redeemed us, be all the glory.

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

T. M. Guild, Presiding Elder.



Dear Fathers and Brthren—I desire to record first of all my gratitude to my heavenly Father for his unfailing goodness and kindly providence during the year. L have been able to hold every quarterly conference in the district.

I took my appointment from the Bishop last year as the authority of the church and hoped as the providence of God, and proceeded to adjust myself to my new relation. I was not unmindful of the great men who had filled this important office in the Richmond district, and was not a little fearful if I could attain the standard of excellency set up by them. I want to express here my appreciation of the labors of my predecessor, Dr. G. H. Hill, not only for the splendid organization and planning of the district, but in securing such splendid and capable men to man the district. The following personal notation should be made:

The Conference had scarcely closed last year, when death invaded the home of one of our ministers, Brother I. R. Godwin, Dublin, Ind., and claimed Mary, his beautiful and accomplished daughter. She was a Christian girl, and a model for her associates.

In the golden autumn, after more than two years of struggle, despite all that travel, climate, medicine and loving ministrations could do, Mary, the only daughter of Brother and Sister Hill yielded to the inevitable and passed beyond the sight of mortals; lovely beautiful, the memory of her is a sweet fragrance.

It was February the 4th, at 7 o'clock in the morning that Sister Mahin, wife of Dr. Milton Mahin, the Nestor of the North Indiana Conference, received her crowning.

Before leaving the seat of the Conference, every charge had a pastor appointed to it except Spartanburg, a new circuit of three points, formerly belonging to the Lynn Charge. I secured Everett R. Naftzger to supply the charge. Early in September, Brother C. Turner Jones, pastor of Saratoga, secured a transfer to the Wilmington Conference. His place was filled by the transfer of T. P. Walter from the Cincinnati Conference. His work has been up to high grade. About the same time, W. E. Ingalls, of Trenton Charge, secured a transfer to the Oregon Conference. Paul P. Truitt, a local preacher, and a son of a Methodist preacher was secured. Brother N. P. Barton, pastor of Philadelphia Circuit, after six months work found his health and strength insufficient for that large and difficult charge. He resigned his work and moved to Spencerville to rest and recuperate. The work has been supplied by M. M. Reynolds, a supernumerary of our Conference.

We report not a single church nor a parsonage built this year, but much work has been done in rebuilding and improving church and parsonage property. A splendid house and lot has been deeded to the Greenfield Charge, worth $5,000, by T. J. Bohn, an honored member of our church in that city. This property makes an ideal parsonage. Bro. Bohn retains an annuity.

Trenton Charge has had the largest improvement in church property in the district. The church at Huntsville was remodeled, making it an almost new church. Internal rearrangement, new seats, art glass windows, new decoration, furnace, lighting system, new entrance and tower, painting and varnishing at considerable expense.

On the day of reopening, Rev. Marcus B. Parounagian, preached the sermon and assisted the pastor in raising the needed finance. In a short time enough and more was secured to meet all claims.

The Modoc Church on the same charge was also remodeled. It was our pleasure to be present on the opening day. No difficulty was experienced in getting in cash and good subscriptions sufficient to liquidate every claim with a good margin. Grace Chapel on the same charge passed through a general renovation, being newly painted and papered at a cost of $150. Much credit is due to the pastor, Bro. Truitt.

Extensive improvements were made on the Farmland Church; new fresco, carpet, furnace, lighting system, painting and varnishing, at a cost of about $1,000.

The Dunkirk Church was redecorated in harmony, new carpet, varnishing, all make this one of the most pleasant churches in the district. Much credit is due the ladies of Ladies' Aid Societies of these charges for this work.

Repairs and improvements have been made on either church or parsonage, or both, of the following charges: Philadelphia, Cadiz, Lynn, Saratoga, Williamsburg, Grace and First Churches, of Richmond, Spiceland, Newcastle, Portland, Shirley, Hagerstown, Mill Grove, Fountain City, Parker, Greenfield, Hagerstown, Knightstown, Selma, Salamonia and Spartanburg. Union City has plans and specifications for an elegant new church that is to be built in the next year. Substantial beginnings have been made looking to a new church at Cambridge City, and extenisve repairs at Dublin.

The year has been fruitful in debt paying. The following charges have paid on church debts $100 or more: Ridgeville, $252; Richmond, Grace Church, $700; First Church, $700; Charlottsville, $707; Lewisville, $829; Winchester, $1,800; Spiceland, $1,320; New Castle, $3,951; Middletown, $100; Selma, $1,500; Saratoga, $300. On parsonage, Portland Circuit, $408; Shirley, $350. The full amount of debts paid during the year will reach about $15,000.

The reports on benevolences will reveal a substantial advance for all claims. The cry has not been, "every charge in first class for Missions," but every charge in first class for every interest, the apportionment the minimum. Thirty-one of the thirty-four charges report the full apportionment or more for all claims, or where the full apportionment is not met, there is an increase over last year. But three charges will report less on the total than last year.

The conventions of the year have been well attended, and profitable withal. The District Lyceum, held in Ridgeville in October was an occasion of brotherly love and spiritual pentecost. Emphasis was placed upon the vital things of the ministry. Not a disappointment was experienced in the attendance, faithful performance of duty and profit derived.

The gatherings of the young people in the District Epworth League Convention in June at Farmland, was a storm of youthful enthusiasm.

The Benevolent Conventions were held throughout the charges according to the plan projected by the missionary secretary of the district.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is a splendid educator of the cause of missions. The district meeting this year was held at Economy, and pronounced one of the very best. The Woman's Home Missionary Society keeps even pace with her sister society in the work of building up the kingdom. A delightful and profitable convention was held at Ridgeville in October.

I cannot speak in too high terms of the work of the Ladies' Aid Society. Suffice it to say, many churches would never be built nor repaired, old debts would not be paid, and many a preacher would do on less salary were it not for this society of elect ladies, who take up any burden, their too often indolent brethren put upon them. How some people have the heart to condemn I do not know.

For me the impression of my childhood has not faded, that the chief business of a Methodist preacher is to save sinners and strengthen believers. Early in the year we began planning for an aggressive campaign of evangelism. Two district campmeetings were arranged for. The one for the southern part of the district was held in Dublin; the one for the northern portion was held in Winchester. Evangelist C. Fenwick Reed, was secured to lead the enterprise. Persons who kept account report that at least 100 people, in the two meetings were either converted or reclaimed. Special mention should be made of Bros. Godwin and Norris, who in a large measure were responsibe for the success of the enterprise. A tent meeting was held at Union City for ten days following the meeting at Winchester, under the direction of the pastor, J. F. Radcliffe, assisted by Bro. Reed. A like meeting was held at Economy, following the one at Union City, under the leadership of the pastor, J. W. Walters and Bro. Reed. It is reported that 73 persons were either converted, reclaimed or sanctified in this meeting.

Revivals have been held in all the charges. Numbers are not always a true exponent of effort put forth. We shall not be able to report as large number as in some years past. Those reported as having professed conversion number 737; those who are classed with the reclaimed are 377; those that have reached the experience of perfect love number 154. There were 400 not classified as the above, making in all quite 1,700 persons who sought and found the Master for their heart's need.

The experience of the year leads me to believe that every district should have a sensible, consecrated, effective man to give his time with the pastors in the rural places. This is not only the hope of the country but of the city churches.

The Sunday Schools are the most fruitful field for gleaning in special effort. The schools of the district number 81, with an enrollment of about 9,000. The work is systematized, and the literature is Methodistic. We need an increase of intelligent, consecrated, spirit-filled teachers to lead the scholars to a positive decision for Christ.

The Epworth Leagues are an agency in the development of the life of the church. We report 40 Senior Chapters with a membership of 1,500 and Junior Chapters with an enrollment of 900. Wherever competent superintendency can be secured the Leagues are doing splendid work. There has been a net increase of 500 full members this year. More than 600 have joined the church on probation.

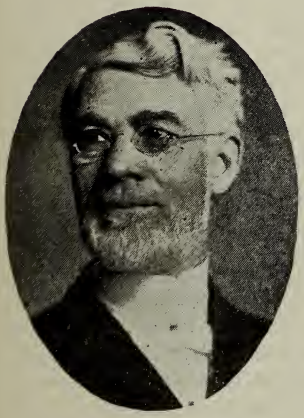
The reports show a decrease in the subscribers to the Western Christian Advocate, largely on account of increase in price. The list shows 330 Westerns, 22 Christian, and 360 Epworth Heralds.

Bishop, there linger with us three heroes. I refer to three superannuated men of the Richmond District. Bro. J. H. McMahon, whose spirit is as gentle as an evening zephyr, Drs. Stabler and Mahin, worthy men of stately bearing and uusullied life. I can only wish for myself and the active men of my district a closing day like unto them, and others who toiled to make the world better.

Of the preachers who have wrought with me this year, I would like to speak personally. Each has had his own peculiar problems, and in solving them they have acted the part of men. And, if I have contributed to the helpfulness, or if I have done service for my King acceptable, all praise be to Him who "strengthens with might by His Spirit in the inner man."

WABASH DISTRICT.

E. L. Semans, Presiding Elder.



Bishop William F. McDowell and Brethren of the Conference—Six years ago I was appointed to the Wabash District by Bishop Stephen M. Merrill. I entered upon the duties of Presiding Elder with many misgivings, yet with faith in God. The promise of Christ to His disciples, "Lo I am with you always," has been my support. I have been blessed with health so that during the six years I have missed but one Sabbath on account of sickness. I have held all my quarterly conferences during my term in the district except six. The past year has been one of faithful service on the part of the pastors. Difficulties have been met, obstacles have been overcome, and great victories have been won.

One parsonage home has been invaded by death. Brother and Sister C. A. Hile were called upon to give up their precious little girl. The hand of affliction was heavy, but love divine sustained them, so they could say:

"She is not dead the child of our affection
But gone unto that school
Where she no longer needs our poor protection,
And Christ Himself doth rule."

One of our honored superannuates, Jacob C. White, was called to his reward. He had been abundant in labors, faithful in service, and successful in winning souls for the Kingdom of Christ.

No very serious sickness has prevailed in the family of any of our pastors except the wife of S. B. Stookey, pastor of the Larwill Charge. She was compelled to submit to a very serious operation at Hope Hospital in Ft. Wayne. Hope is entertained of her complete restoration to health. I ask the prayers of the Conference that she may fully regain her strength. Two of my pastors, Arthur M. Davidson and John A. Lesh, were fortunate enough to find good, sensible, Christian, Methodist young women who were willing to be their wives and to grace the parsonage homes. These brethren are to be congratulated. May they prove themselves worthy of such treasures.

Three parsonage homes have been enriched and enlivened by the arrival of three little strangers. The happy parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lutes, of South Whitley; Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Webster, of Liberty Mills; and Mr. and Mrs. O. R. South, of Marion Circuit. May these little ones live to be a blessing and joy to the hearts of their parents. I had the honor of baptizing all of these and receiving them as probationers into the church.

During the year W. J. Harkness, who was appointed assistant pastor of First Church, Wabash, was transferred to the St. Johns River Conference, Florida. Last September E. F. Gates, pastor at LaGro, was transferred to the Nebraska Conference. I secured the services of M. F. Murphy to supply the charge until the close of the year. He remained only four months. On the first of February he gave up his work. Since that time by the kindly services of the pastors of Wabash and Dr. W. J. Vigus, I have supplied the charge until Conference. The work, however, has suffered by these changes. The reports will not be as good as they would have been if Brother Gates had remained throughout the year.

THE LADIES' AID.

There are forty-six Ladies' Aid Societies in the district. These have wrought faithfully during the year. They have aided the church as far as possible in all its financial work. General harmony and peace has prevailed in all these societies. Truly the General Conference made no mistake when it recognized this society as an institution of the church, and the president as a member of the Quarterly Conference.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

The Woman's Home and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies have been active and devoted to the Lord's work as their reports will show. They are obeying the command of Christ to His disciples, "Go ye into all the world and preach my Gospel to every creature." Their work is applied Christianity in its fullest sense. "They are sowing beside all waters." As Jesus said of Mary when she anointed Him, 'She hath done what she could," so He will say of these women who work so faithfully for the upbuilding of His Kingdom.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

In many of the charges the League has taken on new life. The members have been loyal to the pastors and have contributed much to the success of the great revivals which have been held in many parts of the district. There are forty-two chapters with a membership of over 2,590.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Sunday Schools have had a good year. The officers and teachers have rendered faithful service so that a large number of scholars have been converted and united with the church. There are 76 schools with a total membership of 10,116. How wonderful are the possibilities of this army that is being trained for the Lord's service. May we not hope for great results. One day conventions were held in nearly all the charges of the district, in the interest of benevolences. These resulted in giving to our people much valuable information in regard to the great connectional interests of our church, and also in giving to the pastors a quickened zeal in caring for these causes.

The District Lyceum was held at LaFontaine the first of October. It was one of the best, if not the very best, it has been my privilege to attend. The papers read, the addresses delivered, and the sermons preached, were of the highest order, while the tide of spiritual power swept over the meeting in waves of glory.

There are nine Superannuate Ministers who belong to the Wabash District, seven of whom live within its bounds. The venerable Almon Greenman, whose home is in Marion. He is rich in Christian experience, happy in disposition, joyful in hope of immortality and only waiting the summons to come home. We have also W. J. Vigus, who is active in service, genial in spirit. He is a great blessing to the church. Henry Bridge lives in Huntington, and is loyal to his pastor and acceptable to all the people. He is faithful to all the interests of the church. T. C. Neal lives in Marion. He will give an account of himself before the Conference closes. He is an honor to the church where he lives. Others of these Superannuates are worthy of special mention. May God bless these noble men. J. W. Bowen is the only supernumerary living within the bounds of the district. He has rendered valuable service to the pastor of the First Church at Marion, where he lives.

Taylor University has had one of the best years in its history. The Quarterly Conference licensed twelve young men as local preachers and renewed the license of twelve others, all of whom are attending this school. Dr. M. S. Marble had organized the twelve, who were candidates for license, into a class and had instructed them in doctrine and discipline and in Bible history, so that they passed the most satisfactory examination of any class that it has been my privilege to examine. Taylor is doing a good work and certainly deserves more hearty support from the church than it receives.

CHURCHES.

There are 74 churches valued at $376,550. Debts have been paid to the amount of $10,000. Present indebtedness about $28,000, this is mostly covered by available subscription. There has been expended in building and improving churches $25,715. Two new churches will soon be ready for dedication. One is Fletcher's Chapel on the Marion Circuit, it will cost about $3,000. The other is at Markle. This is a beautiful brick church and will cost about $18,000. The corner stone was laid last November. It will be completed in a few weeks. Great credit is due to James A. Sprague, the pastor. His efforts have been supplemented by a loyal Official Board and a faithful church membership. This charge wants to be made a station and will pay a salary of $1,000 and parsonage.

The church at Clear Creek, on the Andrews Charge, has been made almost a new church at a cost of about $2,000. J. T. Fettro has served this charge faithfully for the last three years.

The church at Rockford, on the Uniondale Charge, A. J. Duryee, pastor, has been remodeled at a cost of about $2,600.00. Dr. W. D. Parr was at the re-opening, when all the debt was provided for with a surplus of $400.00. The church at Warren has added a new piano to its furniture, and has built cement steps to all four entrances to the church, and also built a bath room to the parsonage. These improvements cost $750.00. J. W. Cain is the pastor of this prosperous church. The debt on the Home Park Church, Marion, was paid and the note burned at a delightful service held there at the beginning of the year. This has been a prosperous year for this church under the pastorate of A. H. Backus. The repairs on the church property at Middle Street, Wabash, have all been paid for, so the church is out of debt.

PARSONAGES.

A new brick parsonage has been built at Silver Lake at a cost of $1,753. The building is commodius and makes a delightful home for the pastor. Rev. E. E. Wright must have the credit for this splendid achievement. A debt which had been hanging over the beautiful parsonage at Columbia City for seven or eight years was all paid at Christmas time. Rev. E. F. Albertson has had four pleasant years on this charge. There is quite an urgent request for his return. Other improvements have been made that might be mentioned if time would permit. We have 31 parsonages valued at $61,600. Nearly $4,000 have been expended on building and improving these homes of our pastors.

BENEVOLENCES.

All the benevolent interests of the church have been faithfully cared for by the pastors. Six years ago the highest amount paid for Missions on the district was about $2,500.00. Last year there was raised

$4,663. A gain of $2,163. The incomplete returns I have received indicate that this year the district will surpass the record of last year. This advance has been made without bringing any undue pressure to bear upon any one, and in a way that there will be no danger of a reaction, but that a steady advance can be maintained.

SALARIES.

The pastors salaries will nearly all be paid in full with several hundred dollars advance over last year.

CONVERSIONS.

We started out at the beginning of the year with the motto: "Two Thousand Souls for Christ." That number has not been fully reached, yet we have the largest number of conversions to report ever given. Some charges have not been blessed with great revivals, yet the pastors have labored faithfully, and precious seed has been sown from which the harvest will be gathered in future years.

The following will report from 10 to 25: J. W. Cain, 20; E. F. Albertson, 21; Millard Pell, 17; A. M. Davidson, 15. While the following report over 25; Ira E. Webster, 40; W. E. Murray, 38; J. H. Runkle, 26; G. B. Work, 35; R. C. Jones, 34; O. R. South, 25; M. S. Marble, 25; S. B. Stookey, 47; W. B. Freeland, 35; J. T. Fettro, 51; C. E. Parsons, 50; A. J. Druyee, 50; J. A. Lesh, 69; Jas. A. Sprague, 60; E. E. Wright, 80; J. A. Beatty, 90; H. W. Miller, 180; S. Light, 211; and A. H. Backus, 411.

In closing this, my last report, I desire to express my gratitude to God for his sustaining grace and to my brethren, the pastors, for their uniform kindness and courtesy which they and their wives have always shown me. I feel that I am a richer man in all that goes to make up true manhood because of my associations with these noble servants of God and of His church.

I pray that the Father's richest blessing may rest upon all of them. I can say in the language of Whittier:

"I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care."

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

It is with pleasure we note the progress our Conference is making toward our true relation to the Bible Society. For many years our collections for this cause were allowed to deviate until from holding a position next to that for Missions, they dropped even below those for the Sunday School and Tract Society. For a few years there have been an encouraging advance, manifesting an increasing appreciation of the great work this society is doing in aiding our missionaries in all parts of the world. To meet the absolute wants of our outlying possessions alone vast sums are being expended in the translation, printing and distribution of the Bible. Relieving us as a church of this great expense and responsibility. As there are no agents in the field as in former years, it becomes all the more important that our pastors should familiarize themselves with the society and its work, and become its warm friend and supporters. Therefore RESOLVED, That we will loyally accept the apportionment made to our respective charges, faithfully present the same to our people, and raise every dollar. That the apportionment be the same as last year.

W. J. VIGUS, President.
W. T. ARNOLD, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

1. We appreciate the help that has been given to the needy churches within the bounds of our Conference, but rejoice more in the help we have been able to give to those beyond our bounds.

2. We are convinced that the field of church extension work is of vast magnitude. The need is great. Foreigners are pouring in upon us from all the world. Those from all nations are at our doors. They must first be Christianized before they can be assimilated. To evangelize them is the work of the church.

3. The great catastrophe which overtook our churches in San Francisco, and utterly ruined many of them, thus leaving many of our congregations without a place of public worship, affords us an opportunity to extend our hands in help to our impoverished brethren. A great and urgent demand is made upon our Board of Church Extension for help. We recommend that the appeal of Bishop Hamilton and of the Board of Church Extension be remembered and faithfully heeded.

4. We appreciate the presence and address of the Rev. Dr. Fitzwater, the worthy representative of the combined interests of Home Missions and Church Extension, at this session of our Annual Conference.

5. We commend the wisdom of the General Conference in consolidating the work of the Board of Church Extension with that of Home Missions.

CHURCH AND PARSONAGE INSURANCE.

It is gratifying to note the steady growth of the National Mutual Church Insurance Company, of Chicago, whose total business increased from $26,756,513 in the year 1905, to $29,287,204 in 1906.

Notwithstanding the fact that the San Francisco conflagration was the most terrible disaster of the kind on record, resulting in a property loss of more than $300,000,000, this company was able to close the year in a most satisfactory condition and return to the policy holders a dividend of six per cent.

This company made the first adjustment after the fire and their payment of the full amount of the policy of $4,500, to the First Swedish Methodist Church in San Francisco, was the first insurance money paid after the holocaust.

The total losses up to January 1, 1907, were 1152, amounting to $278,808.13. As is always the case with this company there is not a dollar of losses due and unpaid. It may not be generally known that for years the Secretary-Treasurer and all employees having access to the funds have been under bonds issued by the American Surety Co., of New York.

Notwithstanding the easy terms on which their policies are written and the fact that the deferred premium money remaining in the pockets of its members, which would have been collected by stock companies and put to earning interest, represented considerably more than a quarter of a million dollars, the dividends returned to the policy holders have aggregated $38,404.46, which added to the losses makes a total of $317,212.59 returned to the members.

In addition to these important facts it should be remembered that Methodism has been saved in many localities where churches and parsonages could not have been rebuilt, but for the assistance of this company, and that many preachers have been saved from serious loss and embarassment through its protection.

All parties desiring church and parsonage insurance will be furnished further particulars upon application to Henry P. Magill, Secretary and Manager, 184 LaSalle Street, Chicago, Ill.

CHURCH LITERATURE AND PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

Whereas, Year by year, we realize that the great object of the church is the development of Christian character, and the reading of good literature plays no small part in the formation of such character; and

Whereas, Since our great publishing house, organized in 1789, on a borrowed capital of $600, has grown to a capital of $4,000,000 and with a business amounting to $1,400,458 in 1906; showing an increase of $82,317 over the previous year, convinces us beyond all doubt of the wisdom of its management from a business standpoint; and

Whereas, We are now distributing to our Superannuates annually five per cent. on three million dollars; and

Whereas, Our publishing house is prepared to furnish any book or periodical suitable to go into the homes of our people. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we urge upon our people the importance of purchasing their supplies from their own publishing house, the Western Methodist Book Concern.

CLASS MEETINGS.

It has been said that early Methodism found the Class Meeting an indispensible factor in the life of the church. We are persuaded that the underlying principles which gave rise to this form of worship have suffered no change and that the Class Meeting can, and ought to be, a means of grace and power now even as it used to be.

That this is not the case is due, we think, to the fact that class room methods have not kept pace with the progressive life and thought of the church.

We recommend that care be exercised to have our class leaders real leaders in every sense of the term. Intelligent, cultured, progressive, as well as orthodox and spiritual.

Also, that all pastors be urged to see to the training of young persons specially for this office that the church may in the future have a sufficient supply of competent Class Leaders.

We call attention to the course of study and urge its pursuit by all Class Leaders.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

We, your special committee selected to consider certain matters relating to Conference Claimants and suggested by the report of Dr. T. J. Johnson, make the following report:

First. We, with the Stewards, rejoice in the splendid advance in the amount raised for Conference Claimants and urge that each charge raise the full apportionment for that claim and suggest that some Sunday during the fourth quarter be selected to accomplish such purpose.

Second. We hail with delight the report of work done by the General Secretary, Rev. T. J. Johnson, and anticipate larger results in the future; and we desire to commend our brother, Rev. J. H. Jackson, for his substantial gift, making possible the purchase of the Alexandria property.

Third. We further recommend that whenever a member of the Conference, who will later become a Conference Claimant, superannuates, the Stewards shall, on his superannuation, pay him his moving expenses.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We, your committee on District Conference Records, respecfully report that we have examined the minutes of the Ft. Wayne, Goshen and Muncie Districts, and find them properly attested by chairman and secretary, containing complete records of program, minutes and reports, and well bound for preservation. We commend the neatness and care with which they have been prepared.

EDUCATION.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, FREEDMEN'S AID AND SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Pursuant to the order of the General Conference and the action of the Commission on the Consolidation of Benevolences, the work hitherto accomplished by the Board of Education, Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society and Sunday School Union and Tract Society is henceforth to be carried on under the organization known as The Board of Education, Freedmen's Aid and Sunday Schools, this action taking effect January 1, 1907. It is of the utmost importance that there be a clear understanding concerning the new method of procedure.

The work hitherto done by the Board of Education is largely in the interests of student aid and is vitally related not only to the welfare of these students, but also to the best welfare of the educational institutions of the church. During the year closing with Nov. 30, 1906, 1926 students were assisted to prepare for a life of usefulness, more than $108,000 being distributed among the educational institutions for loans to these students. As an institution, Children's Day has become well established, and it is to be maintained without interruption. The Discipline provides specifically that the proceeds of Children's Day Collection shall be applied to student aid and shall be sent as promptly as possible to the Board of Education. This provision remains in force. At the first meeting of the new board, held in Cincinnati, February 26-28, 1907, the members of the new board, representing the old line of work carried on by the Board of Education, consented to waive all claim for funds other than those received in the Children's Day Collections. It is therefore of the utmost importance that the proceeds of Children's Day be devoted to this line of work. As by action of the new board this part of the work was to be retained in New York for the present. It will save confusion if remittances be sent to the New York office.

The Board ordered the continuance of The Christian Student, which will be sent to all contributors to the fund in amounts of $1.00 or over.

There can be no question but that one purpose of the General Conference in effecting this consolidation was to secure a hearing of the public benevolences of the church before each congregation. The new board in Cincinnati, therefore urgently requested by its action, that one Sunday be taken for the presentation of the claims of the work carried on by the new organization. This collection is to be divided in the ratio of two dollars to one as between the work for Freedmen and for Sunday Schools. And it was voted that an appeal should be made by Corresponding Secretaries for the sum of $500,000 to cover all these interests. We therefore urgently request that a public presentation of these interests, and collection be taken, one Sunday in each congregation.

The observance of Lincoln Day has been growing with increasing beneficial results to the work among the Freedmen; and Rally Day has become an interesting and profitable institution of the Sunday School, the proceeds of the day being devoted to the work of Sunday Schools. It is earnestly hoped that pastors everywhere will see to it that these days are observed as institutions of the Sunday School. The church now has three great benevolent societies. The missionary cause is strongly entrenched in our Sunday Schools. It is only fair that the work being done in the interests of education among the young in our own land should come in for a full share of sympathy and support. Therefore, the importance of placing emphasis upon Lincoln Day and Rally Day.

Nothing less than the amount asked for will enable the Society to do all the work which is needful in these great fields of endeavor. The Freedmen's Aid, upon limited resources, has been caring for many thousands of students. The solution of the problem in the great South is to be found only in Christian education. This society pleads that the church may hold up its hands that it may undertake and carry on a work in some sense adequate to the great need.

The need for increased funds to carry on our Sunday School work in the West and South is equally apparent. Methodism has always been potential in the formative period of the different sections of our country; but, owing to lack of funds, we are unable to meet the appeals that are constantly coming. The Presbyterian Church has 152 Field Workers for the organiation and propagation of Sunday Schools; the Baptists, 140; the Congregationalists, 40; while we have but eight or ten men who devote themselves entirely to this line of work.

This is a time of transition, attended by some danger, not only for these societies, but for the great interests which they seek to serve. It is of the utmost importance that every pastor should co-operate during this experimental period that all these interests may be wisely conserved. The apportionment for the United Society is forty per cent. of the amount apportioned to the cause of Foreign Missions, Children's Day, Public Collection in the churches, the collections on Lincoln Day and Rally Day all being counted in the total amount.

The Woman's College of Baltimore.

The purpose of this institution is to give special care in preparation of young women to meet the responsibilities of womanhood. The curriculum is equal to the best. The teachers are competent. Its work proves its worth. We commend it to our people. We are pleased with the recognition of our brother F. M. Stone and with the excellent results of his work.

Illinois Woman's College.

The advantages of this growing school becomes more apparent each year. The splendid equipment and excellent character of the work done commend it to our favorable consideration. Jacksonville, Illinois, is pleasantly and conveniently located. A strong corps of teachers and modern equipment make this the ideal school for the Central and West ern States.

DePauw University.

We note with pleasure and gratitude the financial advances of the year at DePauw University. In addition to the lectureship founded by the late Rev. M. H. Mendenhall, D. D., a member of this Conference, there has this year been founded a lectureship by the bequest of the late Mrs. K. D. Beamer of Kokomo. This lectureship was secured by the interest of the Rev. W. D. Parr, D. D.; it is endowed with $3,000; and it is to deal with the subject of "Christian Missions." We believe that both of these lectureships will render genuine service to the Kingdom.

In addition to the completion of the fund of $50,000 endowment for the library, there has been received a bequest of about $33,000 from the estate of the late M. S. Durham of Terre Haute. We also note gratefully that the campaign inaugurated by the Hon. Marvin Campbell, of South Bend, a trustee of the University, for $10,000 per year for five years, for current expenses, has been brought to victory. We congratulate this honored and consecrated layman for his splendid effort, and the University for this opportunity for much needed enlargement of work. We urge our preachers to continue their liberal support of the annual offering, in addition to the payment of the Campbell fund, in order that the courses of the institution may be extended and the faculty enlarged.

We congratulate our Conference on its increased educational offering this year as well as upon the splendid support that has been given to DePauw University from the very beginning. We pledge ourselves to continue this support and to make our institution even more worthy and more useful. We rejoice because of the constant increase of students. The attendance this year runs fully one hundred and fifty beyond that of last year. The enrollment will probably reach nine hundred and fifty. This shows that the University has an increasing hold upon our people. We urge our ministers and our laymen to turn our most promising young people to this educational center.

We desire to commend the successful revival recently held by the Rev. T. S. Henderson, D. D., in which the religious life was greatly quickened. Also the administration of the Rev. Drs. E. H. Hughes and Salem B. Town, which is enriching the university in every collegiate way.

We recommend that fifteen cents per member be apportioned for DePauw University.

Taylor University.

This institution, at Upland, within our territory, named for the great missionary of Africa, deserves our recognition and hearty good will. With a faithful faculty and more than two hundred students, chiefly from Methodist homes, it may fittingly be called "one of our schools." We are especially pleased with the pure and stimulating spiritual atmosphere with which it surrounds its students.

American University.

It is gratifying to note the confidence with which the officers of the American University move forward the work of bringing forward to opening this work. We commend it to the liberality of our people. We pledge to it our favor and support. It is to our great sorrow that it becomes our duty to note that the Chancellor, Bishop McCabe, has passed from labor to reward, and pray his mantle may fall on another.

Theological Schools.

God calls every man, always, to do his best work. No man can do his best work without the most thorough equipment possible. We therefore insist that candidates for the ministry ought as far as possible, to attend our theological seminaries for specific and definite training.

We do not claim any right to dictate what school these candidates should attend; neither would we attempt to indicate any superiority of one of our authorized theological schools over any other.

Garrett Biblical Institute, Drew Theological Seminary and Boston School of Theology are all first-class institutions, each well manned as to their faculty, each well located in or near a great city, and each, no doubt, presenting to its students some advantages not possessed by the others. Let every man look well into these advantages, and be fully persuaded in his own mind which, for him, would be most advantageous, but let him not fail to seize upon every opportunity of improvement of mind and heart offered by these splendid schools.

We recommend that Judge J. F. Elliott and Gov. W. T. Durbin be elected trustees of DePauw University, to succeed themselves; that Perry E. Powell be elected a visitor to DePauw University for a term of three years from September 1, 1907; A. H. Backus to Drew Theological Seminary; E. F. Albertson and A. W. Greenman to Garrett Biblical Institute; J. A. Sumwalt to Boston School of Theology; C. E. Line to Illinois Woman's College; F. M. Stone to Woman's College; J. K. Walts and J. F. Bailey to Taylor University.

J. K. WALTS, Chairman.
PERRY E. POWELL, Secretary .

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

In consideration of the present influence and the future possibilities of the Epworth League, we rejoice that this organization is becoming such an efficient agency in the development of the church.

Nevertheless, we are convinced that this efficiency can not be maintained without a more hearty co-operation on the part of our pastors. We most urgently plead that every minister thoroughly acquaint himself with the work and needs of our League and most heartily support every effort to win and keep our Leagues for Christ and the church.

And further, in consideration of the fact that the General Secretary of the League has recently recommended the organization of a Conference Board of Control, we believe that the North Indiana Conference should concur cheerfully in such recommendations and before this session of the Annual Conference comes to a close, take the steps necessary to effect such organization.

Pending the action of the Presiding Elders of the State as to the future form or organization for the Epworth Leagues of Indiana, we urge the co-operation of our districts to the existing forms of organization.

FRED. B. FISHER FUND.

We, your committee on the Fred. B. Fisher Fund have audited the account of the treasurer, M. A. Harlan, and found it correct. Inasmuch as it was originally subscribed for missionary purposes, and charges have received due credit and the particular need no longer remains, we recommend that the balance of $45.00 be turned over to the Board of Foreign Missions.

FOREIGN MISSIONARY CAUSE.

Christ's mission to earth is His commission to His disciples. By anticipation He went before us to all nations. We are sent whither He Himself would come. Our message is His whole Gospel—His humiliation; His sufferings, sacrifice; His glorification. Our equipment is His presence and power— the Holy Spirit. Our service is to continue until all the earth shall know Him. He will not fail us. Will we fail Him? The Missionary spirit of the time is rife with hope of speedy conquest. This spirit must be our personal heart possession. Modern equipment for ocean travel, and the pioneer of discovery have laid at the feet of the conquering King their latest and greatest achievements to subserve the highest interests of His Kingdom. By the former "to go" is an easy task; by the latter, "where to go" is before our eyes.

With gratitude to God we rejoice in the aggressiveness of every movement giving evidences of the fulfillment of Christ's great commission. To name in part: First—Christian educational life imbued with the Missionary Spirit. Second—Increased information, consecration and giving, on the part of our people. Third—Enlarged planning to facilitate world-wide victory for our Lord.

We pledge our Conference to hearty support of every plan and agency honored of God to forward the cause of our Christian Missions. Anticipating the purpose of our Discipline in providing the Annual Conference Missionary Service, to spread intelligence and to arouse enthusiasm, which will result in larger giving of money, and to the consecration of our youth to Missionary work, we recommend that our Annual Conference Missionary Sermon be preached at some hour while the Conference is in session, the Presiding Bishop in the chair, and on such day of the session as will accommodate the largest hearing of the laity visiting the Conference.

The holding of sub-district Missionary Conventions in each district of the Conference is recommended and urged. We place special emphasis upon the widest possible dissemination of Missionary information in each pastoral charge, by sermon, and by printed literature now so abundantly provided.

To solve the problem of easily meeting the Missionary apportionments and all claims of Christian benevolence, we particularly emphasize the importance of Scriptural tithing and an enlarged education on this Christian privilege and duty.

We rejoice in the co-laboring agency of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and with them profoundly thank God for His favor upon their wise plans and faithful work in our Christ's world-wide fields.

INDIANA HOSPITAL AND DEACONESS' HOME.

We are delighted with the progress made in the erection of the buildings for the hospital at Indianapolis, and hope to see them completed soon. We pledge ourselves to aid the hospital in every possible way, and will encourage our people to make liberal gifts to this noble work.

We recommend that Rev. William D. Parr be elected as a trustee of the Methodist Hospital and Deaconess' Home for Indiana, to succeed himself, for a term of three years.

We assure Rev. Charles O. Merica, General Secretary, that we will welcome him to our pulpits to present this great cause to our people, and pledge him our heartiest support in every way. We recommend that a sum equal to ten cents per member be apportioned to the several districts for the support of the hospital work.

We commend the work of our Conference Deaconess, Miss Agnes Jonhnson, and recommend that churches able to do so, secure Deaconesses as assistants in pastoral work.

KRETZINGER FUND.

To the Sixty-Fourth Session of the North Indiana Conference, Logansport, Ind.

Dear Brethren:—Your committee appointed at the last session of the Conference to act as Trustee for the Mrs. Elizabeth Kretzinger fund, which fund was to be used for the benefit of the poor of Wabash, Indiana, begs leave to submit the following report: This fund, when it was transferred to your committee last April, amounted to $184.09, and consisted of two shares of prepaid stock in the Wabash Valley Loan & Savings Association. Since the fund has been in our charge two additions of accumulated interest have been added to the fund, viz: June 30, 1906, $5.52, and Dec. 31, 1906, $5.68; and the fund at this date amounts to $195.29.

With the payment of the next interest in July, 1907, the stock will mature and it will be necessary to re-invest the fund. Your committee respectfully recommends that (as the fund is yet small and the interest rteurns amount to so little) the amount be re-invested in paid up stock of the same company, to be held until the fund shall reach larger figures. So little good can be accomplished by distributing the small interest returns to the three churches of the city, that your committee recommends the fund be held intact, adding the interest until it will amount to a more substantial figure.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLARD C. CREIGHTON,
A. M. GIBSON,
SAMUEL SHOLTY, Trustees.

NON EFFECTIVES.

A call was made in open Conference, for a meeting of the Non Effective members, which resulted in a goodly number being present, who after carefully considering the subject of a permanent organization, determined to effect such an organization. The organization was effected by the election of the following officers: President, W. J. Vigus; Secretary, P. J. Albright.

ORPHANAGE AND HOME FOR THE AGED.

To the Bishop and Members of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

Seeing the need and the importance of an Orphangae or Receiving Home for Homeless Children, and connected with it a Home for the Aged Homeless; if connected, we, Wm. and Ruth C. Chopson of Warren, Indiana, agree to give Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) in U. S. Bonds, or, if not practicable to connect them, we will give Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) toward the building and maintaining of either one of said institutions. Provided, however, that the said North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church shall duplicate said amount in like pay or its equivalent for either one or both of said institutions. Provided also that said institutions shall be in the vicinity of Warren, Indiana. Said institutions to be owned and controlled by the North Indiana Conference aforesaid, and governed according to laws and regulations of other like institutions. We prefer an anti-debt clause in said laws and regulations. And we agree to extend this offer until the convening of said Conference in April, 1907.

Signed, WM. AND RUTH C. CHOPSON.

Warren, Ind., Sept. 25, 1906.

We the undersigned agree to extend this option until the first day of July, 1907. WM. AND RUTH C. CHOPSON.

Referring to the offer of Brother William Chopson and wife, which is hereto appended, we would express our high appreciation of this most generous proposition; and we recommend the acceptance of that part of the same referring to the "Home for the Aged." We recommend the appointment by the Bishop of a Field Agent, whose support shall be provided for by a per capita apportionment of three cents on the membership in full connection throughout the Conference, and whose duties shall begin at the close of this Annual Session.

We also recommend the appointment of a committee on Home for the Aged, consisting of the Presiding Elders and one minister and one layman from each district, who shall direct and co-operate with the Agent in soliciting the funds necessary to establish the institution. Said committee to have charge of all interests of the Home until such time as a board of Trustees and Managers shall be elected.

We most heartily commend Brother J. W. Cain for bringing this benefaction to our attention, and for the great interest he has manifested in it

We the committee view with great satisfaction the progress being made in the attempt to provide a parsonage home upon every Charge within the bounds of the North Indiana Conference, and to add to the convenience, comfort and beauty of the home.

Resolved, That the Presiding Elder be requested at the first Quarterly Conference of each year to appoint a committee of one from each appointment on the Circuits, or three on the Stations, who shall raise the funds and make the necessary repairs, and purchase the heavy furniture under the direction of the Parsonage Trustees, and report the same to the Quarterly Conference.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.—NAME AND SEAL.

Section 1. The corporate name of this organization shall be "The Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church." It is organized under the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Indiana, entitled, "An Act Concerning the Organization of Voluntary Associations, and Repealing Former Laws in Relation Thereto," approved February 12, 1855, and "an act amendatory thereto," approved February 10, 1863.

Sec. 2. Beneficiary Members. Effective members of the North Indiana Conference, who have not been in full connection in said Conference over eight years subsequent to the year 1903, are eligible to membership in the first class.

Nevertheless provided that no one shall be excluded from membership, who had previous to the year 1903 become a life member, under the former constitution, by the payment of ten dollars or more.

Furthermore provided that no one who is now a superannuated minister of the North Indiana Conference, or a widow of a deceased minister of said Conference, and has been paying annual dues of one dollar a year to said Society, shall be cut off from its benefits if he or she shall hereafter fully discharge all indebtedness of unpaid dues, and shall also pay twelve per cent. of any benefits which may be received from the Society, to the permanent fund of said Society.

Should the payments of any one at any time, including former payments of annual dues to the permanent fund, aggregate one hundred dollars, then further payments shall not be required, and a certificate of life membership shall be issued to such persons.

Or he may elect to pay in annual installments of not less than ten dollars each, or in larger amounts, until he has paid in one hundred dollars, when he shall, in either case, receive a certificate of life membership, not transferable, and non-forfeitable except as indicated by this Constitution.

2. Any member who may fail to pay regularly annual dues or installments shall pay interest on same at the rate of six per cent. for the delayed time.

3. If at the expiration of ten years from April 1, 1903, or from the date of being received as a member of this Society hereafter, any member has not paid the full amount of one hundred dollars into the Society, then any lacking amount or deficit shall be charged to him with interest, from that time forth, at the rate of six per cent., until all is paid, and said interest shall be paid annually.

In the event that any minister who is a member of this Society, and has paid one hundred dollars, or is in process of paying that amount into the permanent fund of this organization, shall be transferred to another annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church he shall not thereby forfeit his claims as a beneficiary member, but may receive its benefits upon the same conditions as if he had remained a member of the North Indiana Conference.

2. Should such transfer to another Conference elect to have refunded to him a part of the cash amount actually paid into the permanent fund, then two thirds of that amount shall be so refunded, thereby cancelling all further claims upon the Society, but no part whatever shall be refunded from any credits that he may have had to the permanent fund from cash benefits.

.3 If any transferred member fails to forward to this Society any amount of principal or interest due from him, then such per cent. of his credits to the permanent fund shall be made as will cover his indebtedness to said Society, and if he should allow his credits to become entirely absorbed, in that event he shall have no further claims upon the Society.

4. Should any member of this Society, who has paid or is in process of paying, one hundred dollars to said permenent fund, be located at his own request, or by action of the annual Conference in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline without his request, he shall have refunded to him, if he makes request within one year from the date of location, two-thirds of the cash amount actually paid by him to the permanent fund, but no part whatever shall be returned of cash benefits credited, thereby, cancelling all further claims upon the Society.

5. Any member of this Society who may withdraw from the Methodist Episcopal Church or who has been suspended or expelled from the annual Conference shall thereby forfeit his membership in this Society and all claim to its benefits and all that he may have paid into the Society. The same rule shall apply to any widow of a deceased minister who was a member of this body.

Said bond shall be filed with the Secretary.

5. The Board shall have power to make By-Laws for its own government not inconsistent with this Constitution.

6. Any vacancy in office caused by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the interim of the annual Conference, may be filled by the Board called at any time, by the President or any three members of the Board.

ARTICLE V.—BENEFITS.

Section 1.—1. The net income of this Society shall be distributed annually to such of its beneficiary members as are designated by the annual Conference to receive assistance from the Conference Claimant Fund, or necessitous.

2. If any member shall become a claimant before he has paid into the permanent fund of the Society the full sum of one hundred dollars, then not less than one-half of the benefits which would accrue to him or to his family, shall be withheld each year and turned into the permanent fund, until he shall have one hudred dollars to his credit, when there shall be issued to him or to his wife a certificate of life membership.

Sec. 2.—1. The proceeds of this Society shall be distributed according to the following basis:

(1) A superannuated minister shall be allowed annually ten dollars for each year of his effective service.

3. If the claimant is a widow, her certificate shall show the number of years that she was the wife of an effective minister in full connection with an annual Conference.

4. A certificate for a child or children of a deceased minister shall show the number of years of the father's effective service and also the date of birth of each child.

5. No year shall be counted as effective when any one was receiving benefits as a Superannuated or Supernumerary minister.

ARTICLE VI.—ANNUAL AND SPCEIAL MEETINGS.

Section 1.—1 The annual meeting of the Board of Control shall be held in the city of Muncie, within thirty days next preceding the session of the annual Conference, upon the call of the President or the highest ranking officer of the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be called at any time, by the President or any three members thereof, upon reasonable notice being given to all members of the Board. In all meetings of the Board five shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

2. The annual meetings of the Society shall be held at the seat of the annual Conference, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the second day of the session, the President of the Conference presiding. This meeting may adjourn to any other day or days of the Conference session; or, in an emergency, the President and Secretary may call a meeting of the Society on any day before the Conference closes; and it shall require the presence of thirty-five members to constitute a quorum.

3. In the interim of the annual Conference sessions, meetings of the Society may be called by the President, Secretary and any three members of the Board, twenty days' notice having been given in the official Church paper (Weekly Advocate), having the largest circulation within the bounds of the Conference.

ARTICLE VII.—INVESTMENT OF FUNDS.

The Board shall, at its annual meeting, appoint an Investing Committee, of three laymen, who shall reside in the city of Muncie, Indiana. who, with the Treasurer, shall have discretionary power over the investments of the Society, subject to the following restrictions:

All loans of two hundred dollars or less shall be secured by two responsible names, who shall be joint drawers of the paper, and said loans, if not paid at maturity, shall be renewed annually to the entire satisfaction of the Investing Committee; provided that at no time shall the aggregate of such loans exceed the sum of one thousand dollars.

All loans over two hundred dollars shall be secured by mortgage on unincumbered, imperishable real estate, the cash value of which shall be at least double the amount borrowed, and the net income of which shall exceed the interest.

The Investing Committee may purchase good first-mortgage paper, secured by mortgage on first-class inside city property, which shall be worth at least double the amount of the sum loaned, and shall be properly protected by good fire insurance, and the net income of which shall be double the interest. The committee may also make loans, subject to the above conditions and requirements, on inside city property. But in every case abstracts must be furnished that shall satisfy the committee that the title to the property is clear and unincumbered, where loans are sought or mortgages purchased. The committee shall have the right to purchase United States, State, county, city, municipal bonds, bearing not less than six per cent. interest, if the funds of the Society can not be loaned or used as provided above.

ARTICLE VIII.—THE GENERAL SECRETARY.

1. The Society, at its regular annual meeting, shall elect a General Secretary, in the same manner it does the other officers of the Society. By virtue of his office he shall be a member of the Board of Control, and shall work under the direction of the Board. The Society, upon recommendation of the Board, shall determine whether the General Secretary is to give his entire time to the work of the Society. It shall determine his salary and provide for its payment, either by a pro rata tax on the membership or by directing the Board of Control to pay it from the funds of the Society. In either case the salary shall be payable in quarterly installments.

All revenues and everything of value that comes into the hands of the General Secretary shall be passed over to the Treasurer, who shall receipt therefor. When practicable, reports shall be made quarterly.

ARTICLE IX.—CHANGES OF CONSTITUTION.

This Constitution, with its accompanying By-Laws, may be changed or amended, at an annual meeting of the Society, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, such changes or amendments having been first recommended by a majority of all the members of the Board of Control.

BY-LAWS.

Section 1. The officers shall perform the same general duties at all meetings of the Board of Control that they do in the meetings of the Society.

Sec. 2. The Secretary shall keep a full and permanent record, in book form of all the transactions of business, both of the Society and the Board of Control. He shall keep in his possession the corporate seal of the Society, all reports made either to the Society or to the Board, and all other important books and papers not belonging to the Treasurer or General Secretary.

Sec. 3. The General Secretary shall keep a list of those who have been granted certificates of life membership, and also a list of those who are in the process of becoming life members. He shall credit them with the payments they make from year to year, charging them six per cent interest on all deferred payments until paid, this interest to be paid into the fund for disbursement, and not the fund for investment. The General Secretary shall make out all certificates for life membership, which shall bear the signature of the President and General Secretary of the Society.

Sec. 4. Any note executed to the Society by any of its members and remaining unpaid, shall be deducted from the allowance made to him, his widow, or his children; but neither the Society nor the Board of Control shall have the power to apply the amounts to the payment of any other claim.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

Your committee on Social and Moral Questions beg leave to submit the following resolutions:

First, That we call upon our people to give their hearty co-operation for the salvation of society as truly as for that of the individual person, recognizing that without the reconstruction of society according to the standards and ideals of Christ, the kingdom of God cannot fully come.

Second, That as a church we place ourselves on record against all the social and economic injustice of the home. We deplore anarchy equally in high and low classes of society. We call upon our people for intense loyalty and devotion to the cause of law enforcement and its reverence and honor.

Third, That in all matters of dispute between capital and labor, we earnestly beg our people to remember the principles and duties of Christian brotherhood and to order their conduct in the holy light thereof.

Fourth, That we believe the Ten Commandments are still in force. That the Sabbath was made for man and that the full development of man's highest nature needs its most sacred observance. We will use our influence by teaching, by example, by encouraging the enactment of laws looking to a better observance of God's Day, to counteract the pernicious influence which tend to rob men of the day of rest and worship. We will teach our people the evil effects of Sunday trains, Sunday papers and Sunday diversions.

Fifth, That the attention of the membership of all our churches be called to paragraph No. 248 of the Discipline, and that we wholly refuse to sanction any and all questionable methods of raising money for the support of the church.

Sixth, That, realizing as we do the awful danger to the race, the nation and the home from the result of licentiousness, race suicide and wholesale divorce, we urge the press and the pulpit to speak in no uncertain terms against these gigantic evils.

Our "Special Work" continues to grow, and we are now supporting, in our Conference, through the Little Light Bearers, the King's Heralds, the Standard Bearers and the Woman's Societies, nine regular Missionaries, thirty-six Bible Women, 102 Widow and Orphan Scholarships; pay $127.00 for the support of a Zenana worker; $50.00 for medical work in Bareilly, India; $341.00 for Advance Movement; $40.00 for Day Schools; $25.00 for Folts Institute; and $2.00 for a "Birthday Missionary."

Respectfully submitted,

SUSTENTATION.

TEMPERANCE.

First. We again desire to record our deliberate judgment, that we regard the use of alcoholic beverages as unsafe for the individual, and the sale of the same, a crime against the family, the community and the State.

We are more than ever convinced, that the prohibition of the manufacture, sale, transportation, or the use of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes, is the duty of every commonwealth.

Second. We reaffirm our confidence in the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana, and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, as strong agencies for the final overthrow of the liquor traffic.

We are not satisfied with the present temperance laws, but pledge ourselves to the use of such laws as we have, until better ones can be enacted.

We commend the last Legislature for the advanced step taken in giving us the Blind-Tiger Law, also we commend them for refusing to pass the high license law, which we believe is wrong in principle, and powerless as a remedy.

We again ask that our present law be so amended as to make it possible to remonstrate by cities and counties against the granting of saloon license and that a successful remonstrance shall hold good, not less than two years, and continue in force until the applicant for license shall secure a majority of legal voters on a petition for license.

Third. Resolved that we put ourselves on record as opposed to the canteen in the army and the National Soldier's Home. That we commend the constructive work that is being done by Congress, by the appropriation of two and one-half million dillars for recreation buildings for the men in military service, and that we demand that the anti-canteen laws be given a fair trial.

That we commend the Terrill bill to prohibit the sale of liquors in all Government Buildings and upon all Government premises, and recommend the passage of the Littlefield-Carmack Inter-State Liquor Bill.

Fourth. We are in hearty accord with the law enforcement policy of Gov. J. Frank Hanly, and firmly believe that with a determined purpose on the part of the Church, and the help of God, and the civil authorities, that it will be possible in the near future to place Indiana in the column of Prohibition States.

Fifth. We call upon all our people to abstain from the use of tobacco in any form, and will lovingly urge them not to handle it as an article of merchadise.

Sixth. We ask the committee on program for the next Annual Conference, following the custom of this and preceding years, to place the temperance anniversary on some evening of the Conference session.

We listened with interest and pleasure to the masterful address of Rev. C. C. Cissell, D. D. We were also delighted and encouraged by the address of Rev. U. G. Humphrey, State Superintendent of the Anti-

Saloon League of Indiana, and pledge ourselves to aid in working out the program of the League, which will mean constitutional prohibition for Indiana in 1911.

Seventh. In accordance with paragraph 434 of our Discipline, we recommend for officers of the Conference Temperance Society, the following: President, Rev. J. O. Bills; Vice-President, Rev. J. F. Bailey; Secretary, Rev. David Wells;; Treasurer, Rev. Geo. H. Myers.

We recommend as delegates to the National Convention of the Anti-Saloon League, to be held at Norfolk, Virginia, in connection with the Jamestown Exposition, September 16-19, 1907, Rev. J. A. Ruley and Rev. J. W. McDaniel.

We also recommend that as far as possible, our churches observe the Fourth of July with appropriate temperance and prohibition services. We recommend for trustees of the Anti-Saloon League, Rev. O. A. Trabue and Rev. W. W. Martin.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

To the friends of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the North Indiana Conference, we bring most cordial Christian greetings, in the name of more than three thousand faithful members of the children, young people and woman's societies. We remember with love and gratitude to God, the many blessings that have come to us as a Conference, and with you we are able to rejoice in the degree of success which has crowned our efforts during the year. We have sent to our general treasurer more than $7,398 this year, which is quite an advance over any previous year, and we are able to report gains in our membership.

New organizations have been effected in the following churches: Macy and Lewisville. Young People's Societies: Gaston, Pendleton, Eaton, Shipshewana, Kendalville, Marion, Ninth Street Church, Ligonier and Hagerstown. Have also secured some members to the Elizabeth Rust Society at large. We most gladly welcome all these new members to our ranks, and trust that we may be earnest and faithful co-workers together in this great cause of Missions, so that the greatest good may come to the largest number of the people who so sadly need our sympathy and help. We earnestly invoke the blessing of God to rest upon our every effort to advance His kingdom.

We now have subscriptions to our official organs, Woman's Home Missions, 736; Children's Home Missions, 326. As we grow in knowledge the work of Home Missions, through these excellent publications, we believe that our interest will deepen and our efforts be more fruitful.

Our faithful department secretaries are doing their utmost to advance the various lines of our work. The little mite boxes are doing good work, and this year we have a report of over $1,000, from this source alone. These little messengers are daily reminders of the many blessings our Heavenly Father is constantly bestowing upon us. A goodly number of our women are becoming "Tithers" and adopting God's plan of giving.

Our young people as well as our women have remembered our noble, untiring and sacrificing ministers on the frontier, and our secretary reports that a larger number of boxes and barrels of supplies have been sent out this year than ever before. The letters of appreciation which come from these earnest, over worked ministers and their families, are ample pay for the efforts of packing and sending these supplies.

Our literature secretary has labored under difficulties the past year as much of the time she has been quite ill, and yet her reports show steady advancement in the sales of literature. Our societies are becoming aware of the necessity of knowledge about the various lines of work, and our young people are learning of the needs of their more unfortunate sisters, and are desirous of sharing their blessings with them, a number of scholarships in our indutsrial homes and training schools is the result.

The temperance secretary is anxiously working to advance that line of our work, and it certainly is a department that demands our earnest thought and prayers that God will speed the day when this awful curse is banished from this fair land of ours.

Our district organizations are doing splendid work. We were fortunate in having with us for a short time, two of our General Organizers, the Misses Corbin and Mahon, who are truly God's messengers, and led many of us to see what a wonderful privilege as well as great opportunity we have to do something for the Master. Surely we are all better for having had them with us. The pledges for special work are receiving attention and we sincerely hope and pray that all will be paid in full.

The Silver Offering of $2.50 per member is receiving special attention in many of our auxiliaries, and is of so great importance that we are sure it will all be in the hands of our Conference in good time.

We desire to express to our Presiding Elders, pastors and members of the Epworth League our sincere thanks for their interest and cooperation in the work of our society, and we bespeak a continuance of their services.

We enter upon the duties and obligations of the new year with greater courage and stronger faith in our blessed Saviour, than ever before, knowing that He will lead us gently but constantly up to greater victories and larger successes, and give to us higher conceptions of our Christian duties.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. A. B. CLINE,

Conference Cor. Sec'y.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY'S REPORT TO THE NORTH INDIANA CONFERENCE.

April 13, 1907.

The four thousand six hundred members of W. F. M. S., bring greetings to the members of the North Indiana Conference from the Churches in which we have one or more organizations.

We covet for our work a Woman's Foreign Missionary Socity, with its Auxiliaries, in every charge in our Conference.

The past year has been one of great privilege to us because of the North-Western Branch meeting held in Elkhart,, last October.

District and Auxiliary Officers were inspired to greater service, and the information and inspiration of that wonderful meeting, is manifest in the report we present today.

We have thirteen new organizations; three Woman's Societies and ten among our young people and children. These add 266 new members to our list. Our text book, Christus Redemptor, is very successfully used in a large majority of our societies. This intelligent study of Missions is the secret of increased activity in many places.

Thirteen life members have been made during the year. $1,760.00 raised by our thank offering services. The largest thank offering is from Muncie, $200.00, but Farmland's thank offering $85.00, averages the largest, amount per member, $3.00. These two auxiliaries, and three others, Kokomo, Anderson and Knightstown, are on the "Honor Roll," having averaged $1.00 per member for thank offering.

We have organizations to include all women, young people and children of our congregation. These organizations are theWomen's Society, Standard Bearers, Young Women, King's Herald and Little Light Bearers. Nine of our churches have three of these organizations. They are Columbia City, Marion First Church, Warren, Bluffton, First Church Fort Wayne, Trinity Fort Wayne, Huntington, Anderson and Alexandria.

Two of our churches have four organizations each: Wayne Street, Ft. Wayne and Elkhart; While Muncie, High Street, leads in the number of organizations, and members (as well as finances) having five organizations, W. F. M. S., Standard Bearers, Young Women, King's Herald, and Little Light Bearers, and a total membership of 496.

A bequest of $2,000, left us by Sister Fannie Wright of this city, has been paid this year. We also had a gift of $1,000 on the annuity plan.

With gratitude to all who helped in the work of the year, we offer thanksgivings to our Father "whose we are and whom we serve."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. U. WADE,

Conference Secretary.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

We, your committee, recognize the vital importance of the work performed by the various societies of the elect sisters of the church. Not only the spiritual, but the material interests of the church are largely maintained by their consecrated lives and wise and persistent zeal. The contributions of these earnest and devout women are not to be viewed from a financial standpoint alone, but include many sacrifices of time and self, with their untold and far reaching influence upon the life of the church and community in general.

As pastors we gladly pledge our support to the auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies, their affiliated branches and the Ladies' Aid Society. We will recognize representatives of these societies to the pulpits of our respective charges, and will seek in every legitimate way to encourage and facilitate their work.

Deaconess' Work.

We record with pleasure our testimony to the value of the labors of those elect women who have accepted the holy office of deaconess. Their efforts as co-laborers, in a hitherto largely neglected field, are significant of the aggressiveness of the church in meeting present conditions.

Resolutions.

Whereas, the Discipline, Paragraph 350, Section 2, provides that the Presidents of the Ladies' Aid Societies may be members of the Quarterly Conference;

Therefore resolved, that we do hereby memoralize the next General Conference to enact the same legislation for the Presidents of the auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary and the Presidents of the auxiliaries of the Woman's Home Missionary Societies. Signed:

C A. ROWAND, RALPH C. JONES,
H. H. HOCKER, D. I. HOWER,
F M. KEMPER, L. C. POOR,
O. A. TRABUE, Committee.

RESOLUTIONS.

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.

First. We desire to return thanks to the Banks of the city for their courtesies and accomodations rendered in the transactions of the business of the Conference.

Second. We wish also to express our thanks to the press for such intelligent reports of the Conference sessions as have been made.

Third. The sermons and addresses of Rev. Edwin H. Hughes, D. D., have been a great inspiration to the Conference. Comprehensive, lucid, and practical, they will prove very helpful in the solution of the problems of the ministry, and we are assured that permanent results will follow in the work of the coming year.

Fourth. The Conference hails with delight the presence, presidency and brotherly counsels of our esteemed Bishop McDowell. We trust only a short time will elapse until he will return again as our Presiding Bishop. We give praise to God for raising up one of masterful leadership and wholesome counsel, and pray that his services may be long given to the church he so well serves.

Fifth. We here record our appreciations of the ready and efficient service of Miss Nellie I. Haines, the organist of this church, and of all those who have assisted in the music.

Sixth. To the pastor, the Rev. J. M. Haines, and this church, who have so royally entertained us and anticipated the Conference's needs in such a gracious spirit, we sincerely express our gratitude and appreciation, and likewise the other congregations of the city who have opened to us their churches and their homes.

C. W. SMITH, P. E. POWELL.
F. M. STONE,

CONFERENCE PRESS BUREAU.

To give to the public accurate account of the proceedings and work of our Conference, therefore

Resolved, That we request the Committee on Program of future sessions of our Conference to provide a Conference Press Bureau, the duty of which shall be to furnish this information to authorized reporters of such local and other dailies as may wish to publish such matter.

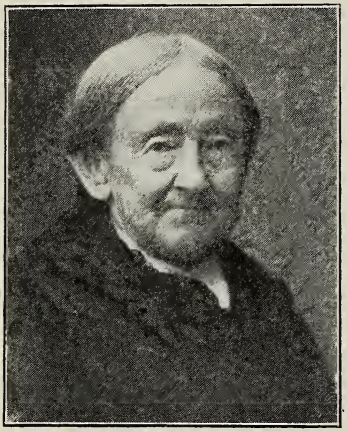
Obituary



MRS. S. A. BOWERS—Brittannia S. A. Millard, was born in Pompey, New York, August 25, 1822, and died April 25, 1906, aged 83 years and eight months. On January 26, 1842 she was married to Rev. George W. Bowers, who became a charter member of the North Indiana Conference, and gave a life of 57 years service in the ministry. Sister Bowers was the mother of seven children, five boys and two girls, four of whom survive her. She was converted at the age of 14 and for 69 years lived a devoted and beautiful Christian life. She was a talented scholar and spent some years in teaching. Her talents and training later took a larger sphere of usefulness in sending contributions to the journals of that day. The Ladies' Repository published a number of articles from her polished pen. In both her prose and poetry compositions, she often manifested an unwavering faith in her God.

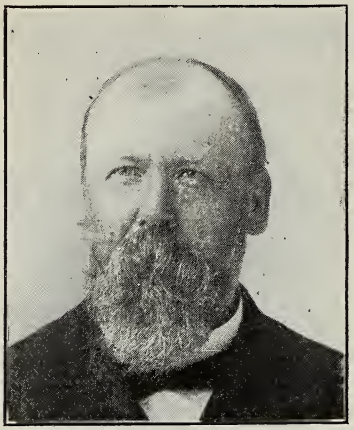
Like the Spartan mother, when her country sounded the cry of its need of brave defenders, she gave two of her boys to that task who were left to sleep on Southern battle fields. In her position as the wife of a minister, in those pioneer days, which were so full of hardship and sacrifice, she patiently and lovingly bore her share of the burden. The large circuits of those days requiring the absence of a preacher from his home nearly all the week, made it necessary for her to spend much time alone with her children, giving them the training and discipline that her trained talents directed. She was one with her husband in his joys and sorrows of his work for more than fifty years. In these

The last few days of her life were full of spiritual victories. experiences and councils they left their children a richer legacy than gold.

Her daughter Mary sitting near her a few hours before she passed away thinking her mother asleep said "If mother dies it will almost kill me." Her mother hearing her, raised her hand and pointed upward, said "I cannot die. I live—I live." A little later she smiled and said "Oh! I'm so happy." When asked if she wanted anything, she said "Yes, I want love, harmony and peace among my children and all mankind, and peace., love and harmony with God."

On Easter Sabbath such a profusion of flowers were sent from the different churches to her that they filled all the available space in her room. On beholding them she exclaimed, "Beautiful, beautiful, just like Paradise. These flowers are just like my children's affections. The world sees the outward bloom, but I see the deeper roots, the deeper strength of their love for me. Oh! I love you all so, I hate to leave you, but it is all right." The last time she was heard to testify was in a cottage prayer meeting, held at the home of her daughter, when she said, 'I have found God an ever present help in time of trouble, and I am near the border land. I am leaning on the everlasting arms." When the time came for the crossing she went quietly and without fear.

The funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Episcopa Church in Dunkirk, Friday morning, April 27, 1906, by Rev. C. H. Brown of Montpelier, of which church she was a member at the time of her death, assisted by Rev. C. King and Rev. W. C. Asay. Her body was laid to rest near that of her husband and two sons in the Mt. Tabor Cemetery at Dunkirk.



DAVID D. POWELL, son of John and Henrietta Powell, was born at Whitewater, Wayne County, Indiana, January 13, 1845. He was the eldest of five children, four sons and one daughter, all of whom are now gone before us except one brother, Rev. A. E. Powell, of Portland, Indiana. One of the sons died in boyhood, the other three all became Methodist preachers. John Powell and his wife were members of the Friends Church, but when their children became old enough to take an interest in religious matters they preferred the Methodist teaching and way of doing things, so the parents united with the Methodist Church, and one by one the children were soundly converted and joined this Church. Brother Powell was about eighteen years old when he knelt at the altar and experienced forgiveness. He immediately united with the Church and has been ever since going on to perfection. Brother Powell was a boy companion of Rev. B. A. Kemp, of sacred memory, their fathers owning adjoining farms.

When the President called for defenders of the Union, Brother Powell enlisted for ninety days, then again for one hundred days, and again he enlisted the third time in the 152d Ohio, under Col. F. A. Hardin, later of our Conference, and served faithfully until attacked by measles in camp at Louisville, where owing to exposure, he became so ill that he was sent home so emaciated that his own parents scarcely recognized him. He received an honorable discharge after having given more than two years of service to his country.

He was licensed to preach in 1866 by Rev. William Anderson, and that year supplied the Cadiz Circuit as junior preacher with Rev. John Harrison. The next year 1867, he was admitted on trial in the North Indiana Conference. In 1869 he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Simpson, and in 1871 Elder by Bishop Ames. He served the following charges: 1867 Middletown; 1868 Windfall; 1869-70 Perkinsville; 1871-2 Eden; 1874-6 New Britton; 1877-8 Cicero; 1879-80 Sharpsville; 1881-2 Fishersburg; 1883-4 Albany; 1885 Fortville. He then took a supernumerary relation in order to care for his wife's father and mother, but during these twenty years he has frequently preached on quarterly meeting occasions, filling the pulpits for sick brethren, and has uniformly refused to receive any renumeration for such services. The first year after leaving the active ranks he preached regularly at the Mt. Hope School House in North Anderson, near his home, and largely as a result of his labor the Indiana Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church was organized, and he will always be remembered as the founder of this Church.

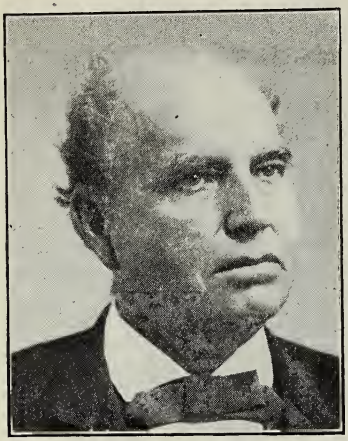
During his ministry he was blessed with many gracious revivals, notably one at Eden, one at Sharpsville, one all over the New Britton Circuit that lasted for more than two years. It was during his pastorate that the parsonage at Fishersburg was built and the Church at Hopewell extensively repaired.

In 1861 he united with the Masonic fraternity and has always enjoyed greatly its fellowships and was ever conscientiously loyal to its precepts.

Brother Powell was married to Miss Jennie Craycraft, April 30 1868. To them were born three children, one of whom, Otto, died nearly four years ago. Two sons Grant and Oren are left to comfort their mother and with her care for her father, now nearly ninety-three years old.

Our brother was an honored and esteemed citizen, a kind husband, and a good father. He was a plain preacher, whose sermons were best appreciated by those who knew him best, which always increased confidence in him. He was ever loyal to his pastors, always willing to help, yet always anxious not to get in the way of any one. Modest, unassuming, pious, faithful, with a good religious experience, which assures us that when he slipped away from us so suddenly on Monday morning, May 7th, that he went to be with God in the palace that Jesus has gone to prepare for those who love and serve Him. The funeral services were conducted at his late residence 315 Indiana Avenue, Anderson, Indiana, May 9th, in charge of Rev. L. J. Naftzger, his Presiding Elder, assisted by Revs. C. C. Cissell, W. A. Griest and I. W. Singer. There were about fourteen members of the Conference in attendance at the services. His body sleeps in the Anderson cemetery.



JACOB CRUM WHITE was born in Huntingdon County, Pa., March 21, 1821. He was the second son of Jacob White, who was a local preacher. His parents were devout people whose faithful devotion to the doctrines of Methodism gave strength and adornment to the religious life of their home and community. In this holy atmosphere — an endowment better than all riches—Brother White was privileged to spend his childhood and youth.

He was educated in the public schools at Holidaysburg, Pa. Here he cultivated with conscientius fidelity the highest ideals which in mature life found their expression in his rigorous devotion to truth, honor and integrity.

He drilled himself into habits of industry, economy and frugality. The freedom of his life from extravagances of every kind gave strength and vigor to his physical being which was naturally robust and capable of great endurance. Thus he was able to project his life through a long period of great usefulness.

His early life was always determined by high moral principles. The inadequacy of such a life in meeting the demands of the highest efficiency soon became apparent to his type of mind. Accordingly at the age of eighteen he became greatly concerned about his spiritual welfare. He was attracted by the eloquence and learning of the Rev. John Price Durbin, D. D., and while hearing him preach from the text, "What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" The Holy Spirit directed the truth which led him into vital relationship with our Saviour. He was converted and immediately united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. The Lord called him into the ministry. To him that call included a thorough preparation for that sacred office. For this purpose he began his studies in the Ohio Wesleyan University in the year 1844. He was received into the Methodist Ministry on trial by the North Indiana Conference in Logansport, Ind., on August 29, 1849. In 1851 he was ordained deacon by Bishop Morris. He was ordained elder by Bishop Ames in 1853. For forty-three consecutive years he answered at roll-call at the opening session of his Conference.

On March 28, 1892, on the eve of starting for his Conference, his reports all having been finished, he suddenly became deaf. This affliction baffled the skill of local physicians and the most eminent specialists in the country. On this account he asked for the superannuated relation at the next session of the Conference, which request was granted. In the shadows of failing eyesight he spent the evening of his life, patiently, joyously, victoriously, surrounded by a generous and hospitable people in the town of Upland, Indiana. His Conference appointments were as follows:

1849 Williamsport; 1850 Westfield; 1851 Pendleton; 1852-3 Chaplain and Agent Seaman's Friend Society on the Wabash and Erie Canal; 1854 Paw Paw; 1855 Somerset; 1856-7 Mexico; 1858 Hillsboro; 1859 Whitewater; 1860 Deerfield; 1863-4 Greenfield; 1865-7 Lawrence; 1868 Castleton. Conference boundary changed—South-East Indiana Conference. 1868-70 Castleton; 1871 Palestine; 1872-4 Southport; 1875-6 Taylorsville; 1877 Milford; 1878-9 Milroy; 1880-1 Mt. Carmel; 1882-4 Hartsville; 1885-6 Lawrenceburg Circuit; 1887-9 Sugar Branch. Transferred to the North Indiana Conference. 1889-01 Upland; 1892 to 1906 superanuated.

Brother White's religious experience being pure and perennial always exerted an ameloriating influence upon both young and old. He kept himself "unspotted from the world." Shortly before his death he said, "God has been so good to me through all my life that I dare not complain. I know Him whom I have trusted. I have gone through many hardships in attempting to do the work assigned me and have tried to be true to God and the Church. But now my earthly career is done." The gospel he had faithfully preached became his sure consolation.

He knew the voice of the Spirit and the Word of God. He studied the Bible systematically and incessantly. In his Bible may be found the following memoranda: "Finished reading the Bible through the fortieth time, September 12, 1899; through again, November 21, 1901; again, May 31, 1902."

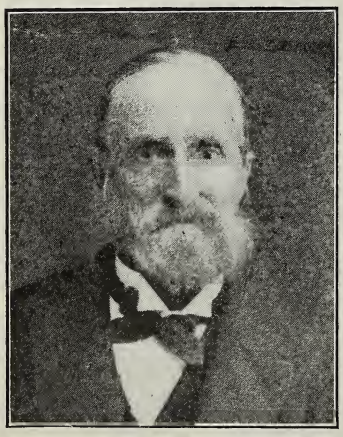
Jacob C. White was a patriot. He maintained an interest in public affairs till the end of life. On moving into a new community he at once assumed and met the obligations of citizenship. The people soon learned to regard him as a man of sterling worth and uncompromising fidelity to truth and duty.

Above all he was a preacher and pastor. He loved the pastoral work because he loved each member of the flock, his love finding its expression in unselfish devotion. His preaching manifested a clear, intellectual conception of the truth, and being attended with unction was effective. "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith; and much people was added unto the Lord."

While he was thoroughly consecrated to his life work and gave himself wholly to it he possessed and fostered a love for home and family. He appreciated all that gentle hands and loving hearts could do for him in his affliction. With him at the end of life all was well. On the calm, quiet evening of July 31, 1906, after long and patient waiting, he peacefully fell asleep in Jesus.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna White, of Upland, Indiana, and their two children, the Rev. John C. White, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in Decatur, Indiana, and Mrs. Grace M. Woodruff, wife of the Rev. John C. Woodruff, pastod of the Methodist Episcopal Church in North Webster, Indian, and by two sons of a former marriage, Mr. William G. White, Crawfordsville, Indiana, and the Rev. Charles E. White, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Kendalville, Indiana; and also by a brother, seven years his senior, Mr. William B. White, of Huntington, Pennsylvania.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Upland, Ind., conducted by his pastor, the Rev. M. S. Marble, assisted by the Rev. E. L. Seamans, Rev. C. U. Wade, Rev. L. J. Naftzger, and several others, after which the body was laid to rest in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, in Matthews, Indiana.



W. O. PIERCE—The Rev. W. O. Pierce was born in New Haven, Ohio, Oct. 28, 1835, and died in Atlanta, Ind., Aug. 28, 1906. His conversion was in early life. His parents moved to Indiana about 1845, and settled in Aurora. As a youth, Oscar Pierce, as he was known, was quite precocious. Indeed, as a boy, he was so rapid and thorough in his studies that he gained the title, "The boy prodigy." His parents sent him to Asbury, now DePauw University, in 1852. His student career was very promising, but his strong intellect was more than his frail body could sustain, and because of broken health, in a year or two he was brought home with the expectation that he would die. But he rallied, and from time to time he increased in knowledge through private studies and in other schools, until he became a man of profound scholarship. He was a master of thirteen languages, and the author of a Hebrew grammar. He was also the author of several patriotic songs. His relation to educational work was as follows: 1860-61 he served as principal of Wilmington Seminary; 1862-4 he was President of Moore's Hill College; '74-'75 he was professor in Ft. Wayne College; '77-'78 he was professor of Hebrew and Greek in Illinois Wesleyan University.

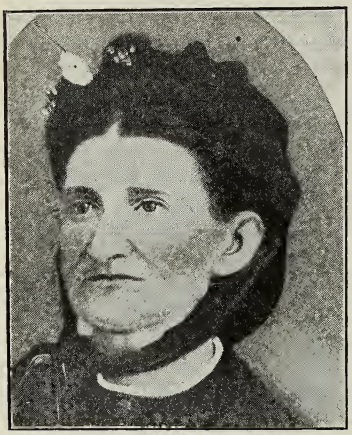
When the civil war began Mr. Pierce enlisted in the 68th regiment and bravely and faithfully served his country as a soldier. His military record was one of honor.

Brother Pierce was twice married. His first wife was Miss Zerelda Fall, of Aurora, Ind., who with two daughters preceded him to the better world. April 2, 1899, he was married to Ella Machmer, of Atlanta, Ind., and she and a daughter survive him.

His labors as a pastor are as follows: 1865-6 Paris; '67-'68 Vernon; '69-'70 Madison, Wis., Wesley Chapel; '71-'72 Vevay. North Indiana Conference: '73 Dunkirk; '76 Winchester; '79-'80 Winchester; '81-'82 Goshen; '83-'84 Ft. Wayne, Wayne Street.

In 1884 he was granted a supernumerary relation, and in 1887 a superannuated relation. His work in the educational field and in the ministry was carried forward with difficulty because of his poor health. How hard he fought agaist disease, but in the final conflict that enemy of us all, the grim reaper Death claimed him.

His funeral services were conducted at Atlanta, Ind., by the Rev. S. J. Mellinger, pastor of the local church, assisted by several brethren of the North Indiana Conference, and his remains were laid to rest in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, in Hamilton County.



MRS. ANNA C. TIMMONS—From our view point we often call death cruel, but from the view point of our Heavenly Father it is often but the translation of one of his faithful and loving children from a life of sorrow and suffering to one of more perfect communion with Him and the enjoyment of the fruition of labor. Of this we have a fitting illustration in the transfer of our sister, Anna C. Harper Timmons, which took place September 1, 1906. She was a daughter of William and Venocia Harper, and was born in Athens, Ohio, August 17, 1835. The time of her death recorded her age at one year d 14 days more than the Bible allotted three score and ten.

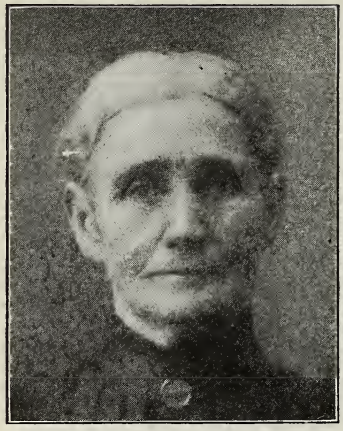
She came with her parents to Indiana in 1850, when they settled in Delaware County, near Muncie. Here she remained until her marriage to Rev. Charles W. Timmons in 1863, who that year was admitted into full membership in the North Indiana Conference and ordained deacon. Their appointment this year was Camden Circuit in Jay County. Among the qualifications this young wife possessed for becoming the wife of an acive Minister of the Gospel was, that in her girlhood days she had united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and had become personally acquainted with God in the pardon of her sins and had received the witness of the Spirit to the same. This enabled her to be a real helpmeet to her husband in his revival campaigns. Though the salary of her husband was small and they had to endure many privations and much of hardship of those days yet she remained true to her post of duty as the wife of a Methodist Minister. During the years 1864-5 they served the Harlan Charge. In 1866 they were sent to Bourbon, Marshall County, which charge they served until the death of Brother Timmons, January 14, 1869.

After the death of her husband, Sister Timmons and her two children, Frank, now of Windfall, Indiana, and Della, lived some years in Colfax, Clinton County, Indiana. From here they moved to Ft. Wayne, where they made their home until twenty years ago, when she moved to Indianapolis, where she continued to live until the time of her death.

Throughout her long life she remained a faithful and consistent Christian. Her faith in the unfailing care of her loving, Heavenly Father made her hopeful and cheerful during the days of dark skies. For the last few years of her life she was prevented from attending the public services of her Church by ill health. This continued absence from the house of God was to her a great cross, but it was borne with a beautiful patience and cheerfulness. The closing years of the life of our sister constantly increased in radiance of the character of her Christ, in the increasing attachment between mother and daughter. The constant devotion of the latter to her afflicted mother, her anticipation and attention to every need, which was reciprocated with gentleness and love upon the part of the mother, beautified with heavenly flowers their cottage home.

The funeral services were conducted at the family residence in Irvington, Indianapolis, by Rev. Joshua Stansfield, D. D., pastor of the Meridian Street Methodist Episcopal Church, September 3d, after which the body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Irvington.

"Dust to dust" cries out an ancient Church;
Above the lonely graves of all its dead;
Better the silent lip, could no sweet word
Of tender hope and pity there be said.
"Earth to earth, and ashes to ashes;"
Not so to trembling hearts spake Christ of old;
"Thy dead shall live" breathes from the Sacred Page,
And lo, from every tomb the stone is rolled.



MRS. ELIZA MAHIN—Believing the promises of God to those who love and serve him, Eliza Mahin was faithful to Him from childhood, and received as her reward long life, happiness, joy of Christian service, many friends, and a triumphant termination of her mortal life.

Sister Mahin's health had been failing for more than two years, but her final sickness was less than two weeks in duration. It was evident almost from the first that the earth was not much longer to be graced with the presence of that saintly woman. All that could be done by those who loved her to comfort and help her, and if possible, prolong her stay among us, was done, but Monday morning, Feb. 4, 1907, at seven o'clock, at the age of 84 years, 5 months and 9 days her spirit peacefully departed from its temple of clay to the life, for which through many years the most careful preparation had been made.

Mrs. Mahin was the daughter of John W. Dorsey, a descendent of an English noble family, by the name of D'Orsay, whose remotest ancestors came from Normandy in France, to England with William the Conqqueror. She was born in Jefferson County, Kentucky, August 25, 1822. The family removed to Dearborn County, Indiana, and settled on a farm six miles from Lawrenceburg. Here she resided until she assumed the life and duties of an itinerant Methodist preacher's wife, which occurred Oct. 31, 1843, when she was married to Milton Mahin, just after the Annual Conference , at which he was appointed to the Patriot Circuit. This was a union effected by the Divine, and for more than 63 years, along with him, they arm in arm happily walked in life's way. To the One who had mated them, she always expressed the deepest gratitude. Frequently she referred to the goodness and loving kindness of the Lord in granting them so much conjugal happiness and permitting them to live together so many years. Lovers in youth, lovers amidst the perpelexities of middle life, lovers in old age. Heaven's ideal lived among men.

Not only did she make for him a home, lighting it with the sunshine of her presence and the glory of her love, so that husband and children rose up and called her blessed, but she was to him a helpmeet in his profession. A truer, more faithful wife and mother never lived. The hardships, privations and labors of the early itinerant were joyfully shared by her as well as the improved conditions of later ministerial life. She served as a minister's wife in twenty-three pastorates; as a Presiding Elder's wife ten years; and as a retired minister's wife fifteen years. She filled the office and did the work of a minister's wife most tactfully, lovingly and successfully. The people, young and old loved her. She became a close friend and confidant of the young ladies of their respective charges. They delighted to be with her and upon every occasion possible, sought association with her. This friendship was continued through many years by correspondence. Sister Mahin was especially fond of and proficient in that most blessed work in which devoted souls may engage—namely, visitation of the sick and the poor. In her quiet way, even unto the last, she carried comfort and blessing and material assistance to them.

To the last, the work of the Kingdom was prominent in her thought. In her delirum her words had always to do with some phase of church work. So vital a part of her life had it become that involuntarily she thought and talked of that great work.

Her surviving children are Mrs. Harriett Polk and George Eddy Mahin of New Castle; Wesley Dorsey Mahin of Kokomo; and Milton Fletcher Mahin of St. Joseph, Mo. There are living fifteen grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Very early in life she accepted the Gospel invitation, was joyfully converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. During the days of her girlhood, as well as all after life, she was very devoted and exerciesd strong faith. Of late, there was a notable change in her manner of expressing her religious sentiments and life. She became demonstrative, beyond expectation for one of her retiring and modest disposition. Enjoying so much of the riches of His grace, she would exclaim:

"O that the world might taste and see
The riches of his grace.
The arms of love that compass me
Would all mankind embrace."

Among the last of her words were these: "O this glorious winding up!" Her meaning was not clear to those who heard them, but in view of her previous songs and prayers, her exhortations, testimonies and exclamations of praise, we may well interpret them as the shout of one who is triumphantly passing from scenes of earth to the glories of the eternal life of the faithful.

The funeral services were held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, New Castle, Indiana, Feb. 6, 1907, at 10:30 a. m., conducted by her pastor, Rev. U. S. A. Bridge, assisted by Rev. T. M. Guild, Rev. T. Stabler and Rev. W. M. Nelson:. Other ministers present were Rev. W. H. Peirce, Rev. Fred. F. Thornburg and Rev. Wm. Heston. Her body was interred in South Mound Cemetery, New Castle, Indiana.

HOSEA WOOLPERT—Hosea son of Peter and Pheba Woolpert, was born near Richmond, Wayne County, Indiana, December 25, 1825, and died March 5, 1907, at a little more than eighty-one years of age. On Nov. 30, 1848, he was married to Seges Caroline Orum, his now bereaved widow. Twelve children were given to this home. Five sons and seven daughters. Two sons, one of whom was a Methodist minister preceeded him to the Spirit Land. Being the child of Christian parents he was influenced by the most devout prayer while the home solicitude early laid the foundation for that strong character in Christian life, for which he was conspicuous in after years.

It was in attendance at the Western Reserve Camp Meeting in Miami County, Indiana, and under the powerful appeals of the mighty men of God that he bowed at the altar and was converted and unreservedly dedicated to his Master for service. This was a very great epoch in his life. His change from nature to grace was so thorough and complete as to bring forward in him the rich and triumphant religious experience for which he was so well known.

Brother Woolpert reached that climaxx of faith in the redeeming power of the blood, which speaketh better things than the blood of Abel, so that the consciousness of his personal salvation imparted to his soul such peace without any under currents of doubt and "joy without alloy" as to make of him a flaming evangel in the kingdom of Jesus Christ.

His spiritual culture, his sense of obligation to God and man opened to him innumerable avenues for the exercise of his gifts and graces and the establishment of the truths of the Gospel he so faithfuly preached.

Immediately, subsequent to his conversion, he was given license to exhort, when he began preaching a living Christ to dying men. Shortly there after he was licensed to preach and was received as a traveling preacher into the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1855. The appointments were as follows: '55 Santa Fe, '56 La Fountaine, '57 Bourbon, '58 Akron, '59 Bourbon, '60 Roanoke, '61 Decatur Ct, '62-3 Sn, '64 North Manchester, '65-6 Sn, '67 Akron, '68 Inwood, '69 Bourbon, '70 Inwood, 71-2 Palestine, '73-4 Paw Paw, 75 Marion Ct, '76-8 Monroe, '79-80 Inwood, '81-3 Philadelphia, '84-6 Whitewater, '87-8 Huntertown, '89-05 Sn.

The deep religiousness of his character was always evident. He had a profound conviction of the truth of Christianity. There was never any compromise of Christian or Ministerial dignity. The heroic element was a prominent trait in his character. Thus adapted by both nature and grace for setting aglow with holy fire the elemental church, he found the initial work of his ministry gave him the greatest joy and happiness. He always went willingly and cheerfully, wrought valliantly and well, wherever the church directed through her authorities.

Shortly following his enforced superannuation, he removed to Green Springs, Ohio, where he enjoyed the esteem and confidence of ministers and people in a very high degree. When the afflictions of life and the infirmities of age prevented his attendance upon the appointed means of Grace, he lost none of his deep interest in the church, and his unshaken faith in God was a benediction to the community.

For some time before his demise he fully realized that his life work was done, but calmly, serenely and joyfully he waited at the crossing in anticipaiton of the coming of the Chariot. He frequently expressed himself ready and willing to depart and be with Christ, "which is far better." He died as he had lived, in full assurance of a blissful immortality. "He being dead, yet speaketh." "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

The funeral services were held from his late residence, conducted by his pastor, the Rev. A. G. Rupert, Sabbath morning, April 7, 1907, and the interment was made in the cemetery at Green Springs, Ohio.

MRS. ANNA E. NETHERCUT—One of the dearest and most choice spirits of earth has quietly slipped from our midst.

Anna Elizabeth Allen was born in Tippecanoe County, Indiana, August 16, 1864, and on March 7, 1907, at the Wayne Street Parsonage, Ft. Wayne, Indiana, she peacefully fell asleep. These dates mark the beginning and ending of a earthly career of one of God's own and within these dates is recorded a history of a most beautiful life. The strength and beauty of her noble, pure character was manifested to all with whom she came in contact. Naturally she was kind and lovable, and when but a child she harkened to the Lord's call, gladly giving him the wealth of her full heart's affection.

She was a graduate of Brookston Academy, and was deeply interested in literature and art. In addition to her native endowments and acquired culture, her Heavenly Father added bountiously of his spiritual gifts, making her life rich in the truest, noblest qualities.

She lived in the pure, holy atmosphere of companionship with herLord, and we could not think of her having an impure motive or a wrong thought. Possessing a pure soul and with high purpose she always exhibited the kindliest disposition and Christ-like spirit. Her heart was fully enlisted in all lines of Church activity. She gladly dedicated her life to the Master and his service and found it her delight to help forward his Kingdom. Her consistent, upright daily walk beautifully illustrated the essence and spirit of the Gospel.

June 17, 1887, she was united in marriage to M. E. Nethercut, and for nearly twenty years they were permitted to travel together life's pathway. The holy bonds of wedlock growing richer and sweeter with the years. Her home was the treasure-house of her heart. There was born to them two children. Emery, the eldest and darling son, was transplanted to the Heavenly Country when seven years of age. Marjorie, their daughter, now ten years old, is left to be a comfort to her greatly bereaved father. She leaves also her mother, two sisters and four brothers.

A number of times in the last year or two Sister Nethercut came right up close to the gateway of Heaven. For months she walked so close on the borderland that she could almost see the King in his beauty and hear the songs of the redeemed. Her faith was strong and triumphant. With perfect submission she waited the will of her Lord. Her victorious spirit transformed the "King of Terrors" into a welcome friend.

When God called her husband to be a Methodist Preacher she cheerfully assumed the duties and responsibilities, sharing with him the sunshine and shadows of the itinerancy. In 1891 they entered the North Indiana Conference and soon were appointed to large, important churches.

Her strength of character, amiable disposition and loyal helpfulness, quickly won for her a place in the hearts of the people and she was dearly loved by all who knew her. She was deeply interested in all lines of church work, contributed efficiently to its best success. Her bright, sunshiny, unselfish spirit was greatly enjoyed by her friends. Her purity of heart and life commanded the confidence and highest esteem of all.

Sister Nethercut lived well, wrought successfully, closed up life triumphantly, found the Christian's reward and has entered upon her eternal reward, receiving the welcome, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

The funeral services were conducted at Ft. Wayne, in charge of Rev. C. U. Wade, assisted by Revs. Canse, Rowand, Semans and and others. Services were also held at Brookston, Indiana, in the church of her childhood home. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Brookston, Indiana.

BERTHA L. SCHUH was born in Marshall, Clark County, Illinois, September 10, 1874, and died in the parsonage home in Coesse, Indiana, April 5, 1907, aged 32 years, 6 months and 25 days. She was the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. John Schuh, her father being the pastor of the Evangelical Church at Marshall when she was born—thus she was born in a parsonage home and died in one. When she was yet a child her mother died leaving her and her four brothers who were younger than she, and her young life was filled with care for others. She was converted in Mercer County, Ohio, when she was nine years old, and later became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She was united in marriage to Rev. M. C. Pittinger, April 20, 1901, at Philadelphia, Indiana, where he had been her pastor.

She became a mother to his two motherless children and cared for them as she did for her own. Two children were born to Brother and Sister Pittenger—Ruth and the baby boy for whom she gave her own life.

Her Christian life and character were beautiful. She loved the church and served faithfully with her husband in the pastorates at Hudson two years; at Leo for three years; and at Coesse one year. Her life was one of service for others, and none but the husband, the brothers, and the children can fully know how broad and unselfish that service was.

She had no fear of death for she knew that the Savior who had kept her in health would not desesrt her in death. After a few days of intense suffering she went to her rest. "God giveth His beloved rest and eternal victory." The funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Coesse, by the Rev. C. U. Wade, on Sunday, April 7, 1907. On the following day the body was interred at Greenville, Ohio.

APPOINTMENT RECORD.

The following Record is a continuation of that in the Monson Manual, and is corrected to April 1, 1907, including the changes made during the year, as reported by the Presiding Elders to the Secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences, because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations—Loc, Located; Miss, Missionary; S, in School; Sn, Superannuated; Sy, Supernumerary; Sup, Supply.

SECRETARY.

EXPLANATORY—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record, it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST year of appointment. 02-6 means five years of service on that charge.

Union Central Life Insurance Company

OF CINCINNATI

It is greatly to a man's advantage to insure in this Company on the annual dividend plan, because the profits paid to policy-holders are the largest of any American Company. The reason for this is that for twenty-five years the UNION CENTRAL has earned the highest rate of interest on its non-fluctuating investments, of any Company, and its saving from low death rate and moderate expenses of management have been the largest. Write the Home Office for particulars.

RESOLUTIONS of Toledo Methodist Preacher's Meeting passed unanimously at a called meeting on Sugar Island, July 6, 1906. Rev. Daniel Matthael, Presiding.

Since by the courtesy of the "White Star Line" we have enjoyed a most delightful day at Sugar Island, Resolved, 1. That we express our appreciation of the kindness of the White Star Line, and most heartily thank them for the courtesies extended.

2. We commend their enterprise in opening up so beautiful a picnic ground on their line. The Island is beautiful and spacious, and is equipped with everything needed for the comfort and enjoyment of picnic parties.

3. We heartily commend Sugar Island as an ideal picnic ground, free from the sale of intoxicating drinks and all objectionable features so often found at picnic resorts. It is the most delightful place we have ever found for a day's outing. We commend the grounds and the White Star Line as worthy of the patronage of our Churches, Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues.
